Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC)	ARC focuses its resources on economic development activities in distressed counties and distressed areas within the 13-state Appalachian Region of the US. In NC, 29 western counties are in the ARC region. ARC funds projects that address investment goals identified by ARC in its strategic plan in the areas of economic opportunity, ready workforce, critical infrastructure, natural and cultural assets, and leadership and community capacity, and that demonstrate measurable results. Its POWER (Partnerships for Opportunity and Workforce and Economic Revitalization) Initiative helps communities and regions affected by job losses in coal mining, coal power plant operations, and coal-related supply chain industries due to the changing economics of America's energy production. Grants support projects that build economic diversity, enhance job training and re-employment opportunities, create jobs in existing or new industries, and attract new sources of investment. Although NC has no active coal mining operations, its economy has been negatively impacted by job losses in coal-fired power plant operations and coal-related supply chain industries.	Grants - Amounts vary by program; most grants originate at the state level.	Yes - Match amount depends on distress level.	http://www.arc.gov (Federal) and https://www.nccommerce.com/about-us/divisions-programs/rural-economic-development/appalachian-regional-commission (NC)
Bank of America Charitable Foundation	The Bank of America Charitable Foundation helps build thriving communities by making funding available to address issues fundamental to economic mobility, including workforce development and education, community development and basic needs. Non-profit 501(c)(3) organizations that are based and serve communities in the Asheville, Charlotte, Triad, Triangle and Coastal NC markets are eligible to apply. RFPs for economic mobility of individuals and families will be open 1/23/22 to 2/17/23. RFPs for economic mobility focused on needs of community will be open 5/29/23 to 6/23/23.	Grants - amounts vary.	Unknown	http://www.bankofamerica.com/foundation
Blue Cross Blue Shield (BCBS) of NC Foundation Grants	The BCBS of NC Foundation invests in clearly defined, results-oriented, initiatives that align with its grantmaking priorities and further a shared mission of improving the health and well-being of North Carolinians. Its priorities include Access to Care, Early Childhood, Healthy Communities, Healthy Food, and Oral Health. The grant program is open to 501(c)(3) qualified organizations and government entities. The Foundation does not operate regular grant cycles; rather, it invites applications based on specific strategic objectives or announces broader funding opportunities periodically. It encourages organizations doing work that aligns with the priority areas to reach out to the staff contact for that area. Entities can sign up for notifications of grant opportunities and review FAQs about the grant process on the Foundation's website.	Grants – Amounts not specified but vary according to size and duration of projects.	Not specified.	http://www.bcbsncfoundation.org
Blue Ridge Energy Members Foundation Grants	Blue Ridge Energy Members Foundation offers grants for service organizations that provide benefits to the people in Blue Ridge Energy's service area and that are delivering needed services in the areas of health, wellness, and treatment; education and youth; economic and community development; and environmental enhancement/quality of life. The application cycle typically opens March 1 with a July 31 deadline. Grants awards are announced in November or December.	Grants - Up to $25,000 each. Citizens' Institute on Rural Design™ (CIRD)	CIRD provides communities access to the resources they need to convert good ideas into reality. CIRD works with communities with populations of 50,000 or less and offers annual competitive funding to as many as six small towns or rural communities to host a two-and-a-half-day community design workshop. With support from a wide range of design, planning, and creative placemaking professionals, the workshops bring together local leaders from nonprofits, community organizations, and government to develop actionable solutions to the community's pressing design challenges. The community receives additional support through webinars, conference calls, and web-based resources. CIRD also has the Design Learning Cohort for leaders from selected communities to engage in peer learning; training in design, planning, community engagement, and facilitation techniques; one-on-one technical assistance on their community design challenge; and support in navigating funding opportunities to make their vision a reality. Note: The CIRD website states that a request for applications will go live in late February 2023.	Funding and technical assistance - $10,000 stipend + $35,000-worth of in-kind technical assistance and design expertise + conference calls, webinars, and web-based resources provided in the past. Community Revitalization Projects for Graduate Students (UNC School of Government)	Under the supervision of UNC School of Government (SOG) faculty and staff, graduate students conduct market research, feasibility analysis, and financial modeling to help local governments in North Carolina understand how to attract private investment for community revitalization projects. Students work on selected projects in multi-disciplinary teams over one semester at no charge to the local governments. The projects to be performed by student teams are selected by students themselves. The students are enrolled in a community revitalization course and are working with the SOG's Development Finance Initiative. Selected projects tend to be in downtowns or significant community spaces and focus on preserving structures important to the community. The local government or a civic-oriented nonprofit must own the property or have a clear path to obtaining site control. The SOG accepts applications for projects from local governments on rolling basis; but for a specific semester, applications are due first Monday in December for Spring semester and first Monday in August for fall semester. National Association of Realtors Placemaking Grants	A local or state REALTOR® association must be the applicant and must be directly involved in project/program to be funded. The goal of the Placemaking Grant program is to transform underused or unused public spaces into vibrant gathering places accessible to everyone in a community. The grants help REALTOR® associations plan, organize, implement, and maintain placemaking activities in their communities. Grants are offered at two levels. Level 1 grants fund demonstration and temporary projects to test the viability of long-range plans and investment initiatives that increase community livability and downtown revitalization. The intent is that such projects will lead to permanent ones. Examples include temporary parklets, temporary pop-up parks, temporary pedestrian plazas, and temporary bike lanes. Level 2 grants fund the creation of new public spaces and destinations in a community accessible to everyone and open at all (or most) times. The grants focus on “lighter, cheaper, quicker” placemaking projects which can be built in less than one year and cost less than $200,000. Examples include new parks, alley activations, trails, dog parks, play/fitness areas, and community gardens. Note: Applications accepted on a rolling basis between January 3 and October 16, 2023.	Grants - Level 1 - up to $3,000; Level 2 - up to $7,500.	The 10% financial contribution requirement is waived from January 3 to December 31, 2023.	https://realtorparty.realtor/community-outreach/placemaking

NC Department of Commerce, Rural Economic Development Division, Federal Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) - 2022 CDBG Neighborhood Revitalization (NR) Program	The 2022 CDBG-NR program is designed to provide grants to non-entitlement local units of government for housing activities including, for example, rehabilitation, acquisition, clearance, relocation, substantial rehabilitation, replacement housing, and emergency repairs. Local units of government can tailor a project to meet the community development needs specific and most critical to their locality, primarily for their low- and moderate-income residents. Awards are made on a competitive basis based on the number of applications received compared to funding availability. CDBG-NR activities must be based on need or needs substantiated by the local government applicant. Applications were due September 30, 2022.	Grant – Up to $950,000, with some restrictions for specific activities. NC Department of Commerce, Rural Economic Development Division, State Rural Grants - Building Reuse	The program provides grants to local governments in three categories: Vacant Building, to renovate vacant buildings (vacant for at least 3 months prior to the application deadline); Existing Building, to renovate or expand buildings occupied by an existing, eligible North Carolina company planning to expand in its current location; and/or Rural Health, to renovate, expand, or construct health care facilities that will lead to the creation of new, full-time jobs. For the Existing Building category, businesses must meet the weekly wage standard, provide 50% benefits for employees, and be represented on the Priority Industry Table. For the Rural Health category, local units of government in Tier 1 or Tier 2 counties, or in rural census tracts in Tier 3 counties are eligible to apply. Priority will be given to Rural Health projects in Tier 1 and Tier 2 counties for communities with populations less than 5,000. Tier designations and rural census tract information can be found on the NC Department of Commerce website. Please note that guidelines are subject to change. Pre-application conference call required. Contact program manager for the most current information.	Grants - Potential grant funding available will be assessed through analysis of the project and based upon the project's location, the quantity and quality of jobs committed, the overall economic impact of the project, and at the discretion of the Rural Infrastructure Authority.	For the Rural Health category, a local government must contribute at least 5% of the cash match, which must come from local resources and may not be derived from other State or federal grant funds. The Rural Health building reuse program also requires a dollar for dollar match up to the total grant amount.	https://www.commerce.nc.gov/grants-incentives/building-or-site-funds/building-reuse/building-reuse-state-rural-grants
NC Department of Commerce, Rural Economic Development Division, State Rural Grants – Demolition	The program provides grants to local governments to support the demolition of vacant buildings to encourage site rehabilitation and site availability for economic development purposes. Eligible applicants are local units of government located in Tier 1 and Tier 2 counties or in rural census tract of Tier 3 counties. Tier designations and information about rural census tracts can be found on the NC Department of Commerce website. In Tier 1 and Tier 2 counties, priority will be given to towns or communities with populations less than 5,000. Please note that guidelines are subject to change. Pre-application conference call required. Contact program manager for the most current information.	Grants - Up to $75,000 for buildings 100,000 square feet or less and up to $150,000 for buildings over 100,000 square feet. Maximum of $12,500 per projected job to be created on the rehabilitated site. NC Department of Environmental Quality, Division of Marine Fisheries - Boating Infrastructure Grant (BIG) Program	The BIG program is a federal grant program, administered by the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service, that provides funding to states for the construction, renovation, and maintenance of boating infrastructure facilities for transient recreational vessels at least 26 feet long that are operated, leased, rented, or chartered primarily for pleasure. Boating infrastructure means the structures, equipment, accessories, and services that are necessary or desirable for a facility to accommodate eligible vessels. Transient vessels are those passing through or by a place, staying up to 15 days. Projects completed using BIG funds must provide public access but may be publicly or privately owned. The NC Division of Marine Fisheries is the lead agency for BIG in North Carolina. Both publicly owned and privately-owned marina facilities that are open to the public are eligible to apply for funding, including private marinas, local municipalities, state agencies, or other non-governmental entities. Note: No announcement yet for 2024 grants.	Grants - Two tiers: State (up to $200,000) and National (up to $1.5 million).	Yes – 25% cost share / match. NC Department of Environmental Quality, Division of Waste Management, North Carolina Brownfields Program	The North Carolina Brownfields Program, authorized by the state statute known as the Brownfields Property Reuse Act, provides a mechanism to treat prospective developers of brownfield sites differently than the parties responsible for contaminating them. Prospective developers negotiate a brownfields agreement with the program that defines activities needed to make the site suitable for reuse, rather than cleaning up the site to regulatory standards (which responsible parties are required to do). The state program has no upfront funds available to prospective developers; however, the brownfields agreement entitles a developer to a property tax exclusion on the improvements made to the property for a 5-year period. North Carolina Soil and Water Conservation Districts	North Carolina has 96 local soil and water conservation districts: 95 with boundaries coinciding with county borders and one that encompasses a five-county area. NC General Statue 139 provides that local soil and water conservation districts are both governmental subdivisions of the state and independent political units. Under the same statute, the N.C. Department of Agriculture, Division of Soil and Water Conservation, is connected to and delivers programs through the local districts.  Districts work with governments (county, state, and federal) and both public and private organizations in a non-regulatory capacity to implement a comprehensive conservation program to protect and improve natural resources while assisting private landowners in using conservation practices. Among their many functions, districts can assist communities with natural resource management such as stormwater management, floodplain management and flood control, erosion and sediment control, source water protection, water use efficiency, stream restoration, open spaces, and small-plot forestry management. They also have access to government funding to support their work and projects. U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service, State, Tribal, Local Plans &amp; Grants Division, Paul Bruhn Historic Revitalization Grant Program (Formerly known as the Historic Revitalization Subgrant Program)	The Paul Bruhn Historic Revitalization Grant Program supports subgrant programs that enable the rehabilitation of historic properties and rehabilitate, protect, and foster economic development of rural communities. It funds preservation projects for historic sites, including architectural and engineering services, and physical building preservation through subgrants to communities determined rural by the U.S. Bureau of the Census. Nonprofits, Tribal Historic Preservation Offices, State Historic Preservation Offices, or Certified Local Governments are eligible to apply for funding to support subgrant programs that award funds to projects within their jurisdictions. Projects must involve properties listed in the National Register of Historic Places or determined eligible for listing at the National, State, or local level of significance and located within rural (non-urban) communities with populations less than 50,000. Sign up on website for Notice of Funding Opportunity when funding is available.	Grants – $200,000 to $750,000, when funding is available.	Not required; however, the provision of matching funds will be considered in the application scoring process.	https://www.nps.gov/subjects/historicpreservationfund/paul-bruhn-historic-revitalization-grants-program.htm
U.S. Department of the Interior, National Park Service - Rivers, Trails &amp; Conservation Assistance Program	The mission of the Rivers, Trails and Conservation Assistance (RCTA) program is to assist community-led natural resource conservation and outdoor recreation projects nationwide. RTCA staff provide technical assistance to communities with projects that develop (or restore) parks, conservation areas rivers, wildlife habitats, outdoor recreation opportunities, and programs that engage younger generations in the outdoors. Communities, nonprofit organizations, and local/state/federal/tribal agencies can request RCTA program assistance through an annual application process. Assistance services typically last 1 to 2 years. The RCTA program encourages community engagement and partnerships and helps with visioning and planning processes for projects. Applications are due March 1 each year. For North Carolina communities, contact the RCTA Southeast Region Program Manager ( https://www.nps.gov/orgs/rtca/contactus.htm ) to discuss the proposed project and current application process. U.S. Department of the Treasury, Community Development Financial Institutions Fund (CDFI Fund) - New Markets Tax Credits	The New Markets Tax Credit Program (NMTC Program) was established by Congress in 2000 to spur new or increased investments in operating businesses and real estate projects located in low-income communities. The NMTC Program attracts investment capital to low-income communities by permitting individual and corporate investors to receive a tax credit against their federal income tax return in exchange for making equity investments in specialized financial institutions called Community Development Entities (CDEs). The credit equals 39% of the original investment amount and is claimed over a period of seven years (5% for each of the first three years, and 6% for each of the remaining four years). The investment in the CDE cannot be redeemed before the end of the seven-year period. U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) - Brownfields Grants	EPA Brownfields Grants provide funding for brownfields assessment, cleanup, revolving loans, environmental job training for residents impacted by brownfield sites in their communities, and state and tribal brownfields response programs. To facilitate the leveraging of public resources, the program collaborates with other EPA programs, other federal partners, and state agencies to identify and make available resources that can be used for brownfield activities.	Grants - Amounts vary.	Some grants have a cost-share requirement.	https://www.epa.gov/brownfields/types-epa-brownfield-grant-funding
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) - Recreation Economy for Rural Communities	The EPA Recreation Economy for Rural Communities (RERC) program provides planning assistance to help communities create strategies and an action plan to revitalize a Main Street or neighborhood by developing the local outdoor recreation economy and protecting natural resources. A planning team works with selected communities for 4 to 6 months and holds a two-day facilitated community workshop. Any community may apply, but special consideration will be given to those that are small towns, economically disadvantaged (such as those in Opportunity Zones), and/or in the Northern Border Region (a Federal-State partnership for economic and community development serving the most distressed counties of Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, and New York). Note: The website will be updated when there is a new call for communities to apply for future rounds of the RERC program.	Technical assistance	N/A	https://www.epa.gov/smartgrowth/recreation-economy-rural-communities
U.S. Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) – Smart Growth Grants and Other Funding	The EPA periodically offers Smart Growth grants to support activities that improve the quality of development and protect human health and the environment. The website lists available EPA grant opportunities for smart growth and community revitalization. The EPA also posts on the website lists it has compiled of other funding resources available to tribal, state, and local governments; communities; and non-governmental organizations for community revitalization and smart growth projects and initiatives. Note: The website has links to other funding resources and instructions to receive notifications about other grant opportunities.	Grants (when funded) and lists of other funding resources	Not stated	https://www.epa.gov/smartgrowth/epa-smart-growth-grants-and-other-funding
Walmart Local Giving Program	Local Walmart stores, Sam's Clubs, and logistics facilities award grants to eligible nonprofit organizations, government agencies, schools, and others operating within the service area of the facility from which they are requesting funding. The grants are designed to address the unique local needs of the communities served.	Grants - $250 to $5,000	None noted	https://walmart.org/what-we-do/strengthening-communities/local-giving
Waste Management Charitable Giving	Waste Management provides support and services to 501(c)(3) or public organizations that promote civic pride, economic development, and revitalization. It is most likely to support programs in the areas of environmental conservation, environmental education, and community vitality. Applications are accepted year-round and reviewed by local WM team members on a continuous basis. Waste Management targets support to specific projects or programs that enhance the scope of services offered by an organization and prefers not to financially support operating costs, capital campaigns, or multi-year requests. Preference is also given to organizations with a broad base of funders, community partners, and volunteers.	Financial support	Not stated - but looks for support from other community partners.	https://www.wm.com/about/community/charitable-giving.jsp
