FATAL TRAFFIC COLLISION

BUENA PARK, Calif. - On Monday, July 29th, 2024, at 5:18 p.m., Buena Park Police Department received calls about a female down in the street near the 6300 block of Crescent Avenue. Officers arrived on scene and found a female with traumatic injuries. Emergency medical personnel from the Orange County Fire Authority treated the victim and transported her to a local hospital, where she later passed away.

During the investigation, traffic investigators reviewed video evidence and learned a gardening service truck struck the female while she was lying down or sleeping near the curblin in the roadway. Traffic investigators located the driver and truck involved nearby at another job site. The driver cooperated and was not arrested following the incident. The investigation is still open. Witnesses are encouraged to call the Buena Park Police Department.
