

In case you missed it, the following are highlights from the October 4, 2023, Cape Coral City Council meeting.

Community Recognition: Luke Buzzelli, Weightlifting Champion

City Council and the City Manager recognize the exemplary achievements of Cape Coral residents. Ida Baker High School graduate Luke Buzzelli won the FHSAA Region 2A-4 traditional weightlifting championship in the 169-pound classification.

Council Approves Land Purchase for Future Stormwater Improvements

City Council approved Resolution 263-23 to purchase a 10-acre site within Saddlewood Farms for future stormwater and water quality projects. The site has been identified to improve water quality and flow and serve environmental education purposes for neighboring schools and visitors at the City's Multi-Sport Complex.

Council Approves Purchase of New CCPD Uniforms

City Council approved Resolution 269-23, allowing the use of Police Confiscation Funds to purchase new gear for Cape Coral Police Officers. Uniform changes include new breathable and moisture-wicking short-sleeve and long-sleeve shirts to help mitigate long-term exposure and risk to harmful sun rays.

Upcoming Public Meetings

A Committee of the Whole meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, October 11, 2023, at 9 a.m. in Council Chambers.
