

Village of Hinsdale Fact Sheet

The Village of Hinsdale was founded in 1873 and is nestled 20 miles west of Chicago. Hinsdale is easily reached by road, rail or air. Hinsdale's desirable location in Chicago's western suburbs means O'Hare International Airport and Midway Airport are equidistant, granting easy access to air travel. Those wishing to travel by car will find many options, including I-294, I-55, and Route 83. Three Metra rail-line stops make commuting to Chicago a breeze.

The Village of Hinsdale provides an exceptional, nurturing, and prosperous setting for its citizens and businesses. Our historic downtown is a destination for shoppers and diners from the Chicago region, with many looking to escape the impersonal atmosphere of "Anywhere USA" malls and lifestyle centers. Hinsdale is where small town charm meets urban sophistication.

17,705 Population of Hinsdale	$875,900 Median Home Value
4.86 Square Miles	$171,453 Average Household Income
DuPage and Cook Counties	45.7% % of Households earning $200,000+ annually
5,670 number of households	41.3 Median Age

