Traffic Summary

Investigations Division members were assigned to each elementary school during arrival and dismissal times for the first week of school. Officers were directed to make observations of parking violations and encourage parents to follow the appropriate procedures for pick and drop-off. Positive feedback was received from parents, as well as school administrators. The portable speed trailer has also been deployed on a daily basis in school zones within the community.

Traffic information was provided to residents regarding the intersection of North & Adams, 600 blk N. Elm Street, and the 500 blk Justina. Residents expressed concerns and sought feedback on processes for slowing vehicles in these areas. The speed trailer has been utilized in cooperation with the speed feedback sign to gather additional analysis on 85th speeds. Unique circumstances were not observed that would warrant additional manpower allocation as of this time.

A resident inquired about the intersection of Walnut & Clay and requested that existing yield signs be converted to stop signs. A preliminary on-site review of the intersection, vehicular volumes, and crash history indicated that MUTCD warrants would not be met. Due to the intersection's close proximity to Monroe School, pedestrian warning signage was installed in advance of the crosswalk at the intersection and its frequent use by school students.

Residents near Pierce Park voiced concerns regarding vehicles parking on both sides of the 600 blk of E. Hickory Street during times of park activity. It was determined that existing signage within the block was improperly marked. A recommendation has been prepared for corrections necessary to the posted signage, and a temporary 90-day restriction was imposed to make timely improvements to the conditions within the block.

There has been on-going evaluation of the parking conditions within the 700-800 blk Justina, where residents have previously presented concerns to the Zoning and Public Safety Committee about Whole Foods employees parking long-term during the daytime. Chief Bloom met with the store manager at Whole Foods on this issue, and additional measures will be taken to distribute the parking of the vehicles to other public roadways. Residents have preliminarily reported some improvement, varying by the day.

Deputy Chief Wodka met with a resident who lives near Fuller & Justina regarding his request for a 4-way stop at this intersection. A traffic study was completed which included on-site review of the intersection, vehicular volumes, and crash history. The traffic study indicated that MUTCD warrants would not be met based upon data collected, and the results of the study had been shared with the resident.

From Monday, August 25, 2014 to Friday, August 29, 2014, Officer Karen Kowal attended 40 Hour Field Training Officer Sokolove Model. This course was specifically designed for experienced, uniformed patrol personnel selected to serve as Field Training Officers for probationary employees. This course emphasized the FTO's role in assisting probationers in certifying for solo patrol operations by applying the knowledge and skills acquired during Basic Police Training/Certification and using them according to agency policies, procedures, and community service delivery standards. Instruction in this program highlighted two essential Field Training and Evaluation Process skills: A) the ability to examine and objectively document the probationer's job behaviors using standardized assessment guidelines and, B) the analysis of the probationer's training needs and use of proper instructional techniques for corrective action. Presentation focused on discussion as well as hands-on application of the course materials in small group and individual/student exercises. Students were required to complete out-of-classroom reading assignments from the course text and workbook "Breaking Routine: Field Training Officer." Course content included: What every FTO really needs to know about the operational structure of the Field Training & Evaluation Process; The Instructional Relay Race: Taking over where basic police training/certification left off; Inventorying the probationer's current knowledge and skill proficiencies; Selection and use of on-the-job instructional techniques: finding the right tools to meet the challenge; Examining effective probationer assessment standards that produce outstanding law enforcement officers; Utilization of standardized evaluation guidelines; Documenting probationer performance; Performance assessment: objectively measuring probationer competence; Documenting the extent of training and coaching; Managing deficient performance and the "Not Responding to Training" probationer; Use of the Probationer Officer Manual as the Field Training playbook; Preparing the Probationer for Community Oriented Policing

Manual on Uniform Traffic Control Devices Warrants

August 2014

The following warrants should be met prior to installation of a two-way stop sign:

1. Intersection of a less important road with a main road where application of the normal right-of-way rule would not be expected to provide reasonable compliance with the law;
2. Street entering a through highway or street;
3. Unsignalized intersection in a signalized area; and/or
4. High speeds, restricted view, or crash records indicate a need for control by the STOP sign (defined by 5 or more collisions within a 12-month period).

The following warrants should be met prior to the installation of a Multi-way stop sign:

1. Where traffic control signals are justified, the multi-way stop is an interim measure that can be installed quickly to control traffic while arrangements are being made for the installation of the traffic control signal.
2. A crash problem, as indicated by 5 or more reported crashes in a 12-month period, that is susceptible to correction by a multi-way stop installation. Such crashes include right-turn and left-turn collisions as well as right-angle collisions.
3. Minimum volumes:
  - a. The vehicular volume entering the intersection from the major street approaches (total of both approaches) averages at least 300 vehicles per hour for any 8 hours of an average day, and
  - b. The combined vehicular, pedestrian, and bicycle volume entering the intersection from the minor street approaches (total of both approaches) averages at least 200 units per hour for the same 8 hours, with an average delay to minor-street vehicular traffic of at least 30 seconds per vehicle during the highest hour, but
  - c. If the 85th-percentile approach speed of the major-street traffic exceeds 65 km/h or exceeds 40 mph, the minimum vehicular volume warrants are 70 percent of the above values.
4. Where no single criterion is satisfied, but where Criteria 2, 3.a, and 3.b are all satisfied to 80 percent of the minimum values. Criterion 3.c is excluded from this condition.

Option:

Other criteria that may be considered in an engineering study include:

1. The need to control left-turn conflicts;
2. The need to control vehicle/pedestrian conflicts near locations that generate high-pedestrian volumes;
3. Locations where a road user, after stopping, cannot see conflicting traffic and is not able to reasonably safely negotiate the intersection unless conflicting cross traffic is also required to stop; and
4. An intersection of two residential neighborhood collector (through) streets of similar design and operating characteristics where multi-way stop control would improve traffic operational characteristics of the intersection.

The following warrants must be met prior to the installation of a Yield sign:

1. On a minor road at the entrance to an intersection where it is necessary to assign right-of-way to the major road, but where a stop sign is not necessary at all times, and where the safe approach speed on the minor road exceeds 10 miles per hour;
2. On the entrance ramp to an expressway where an acceleration ramp is not provided;
3. Within an intersection with a divided highway, where a STOP sign is present at the entrance to the first roadway and further control is necessary at the entrance between the two roadways, and where the median width between the acceleration lane; and
4. At an intersection where a special problem exists and where an engineering study indicates the problem to be susceptible to correction by use of the YIELD sign.
