

Monthly Outstanding Service Employee

February 2018

Melissa Barry was chosen to receive the February 2018 Outstanding Employee Service Award. Melissa is perpetually productive, multitasking and efficient when caring for shelter animals, which lays the foundation of providing exceptional customer service. She is always thoughtful, direct and honest. Melissa goes above and beyond the often emotionally and physically demanding requirements of caring for and evaluating the shelter animals. She also takes on the task of photographing the adoptable animals using her exceptional photography skills to promote animals for adoption.

Thank you, Melissa, for your significant contributions to the overall quality of the City are recognized and very much appreciated!

Congratulations on being named the City of Jefferson's Outstanding Service Employee for February 2018!
