HR0245

INTERNS, JOB SHADOWING AND VOLUNTEERS. The County appreciates the valuable contributions interns and volunteers have to the citizens of Jefferson County. The County recognizes that the designation as an 'intern' or a 'volunteer' is contingent on the duties performed and supervision the individual receives, and subject to the Policies and Procedures and Personal Conduct provisions of the Personnel Ordinance.

- A. INTERN POSITIONS. Jefferson County views internships as an important element of recruiting and staffing. The County looks for capable, driven interns with long-term interest in the County or in the career they are pursuing. This section also applies to students obtaining clinical experience.

1. Unpaid Intern. Unpaid interns are assigned actual work, complete with challenges and opportunities for problem solving and gaining practical experience, often for educational credit or advancing the intern's career. Unpaid interns are classified as employees for Workers Compensation purposes only. For a position to be classified as an unpaid intern, the following conditions shall be met:
 - a. The training is similar to training the student would find in an educational environment.
 - b. The training is for the benefit of the intern.
 - c. The training does not replace the work of regular employees but works under close supervision of existing staff.
 - d. The internship is set for a fixed duration and the intern is not entitled to a job at the end of the internship.
 - e. The intern understands he/she is not entitled to wages for the training.
 - f. The County derives no immediate advantage from the contributions of the intern and on occasion, its operations may actually be impeded. (i.e. require extra supervision, require extra time reviewing work and/or increase the amount of time to complete a project.
2. Paid Intern. Paid interns are approved positions by the County Board, are assigned actual work that offers a benefit to the intern by providing the opportunity to apply skills or knowledge and provides a direct, immediate benefit to the County as well. A paid intern often will perform work regularly assigned to other employees and receive the same level of supervision as the regular workforce. If any of the conditions of an unpaid intern are not met, the individual is a paid intern and is considered an employee for all purposes.

B. JOB SHADOWING PARTICIPANTS. Job Shadowing Participants receive limited exploration of a specific occupation or industry, typically lasting less than one day. Job Shadowing is available to adults, dislocated workers and youth participants and will usually involve job placement sites, schools or employees/candidates for employment who are interested in knowing more about a specific position.

Job Shadowing Participants are not considered employees by any definition and may be required to sign confidentiality agreements or other waivers. Participants perform no or minimal work or contribution to the County's productivity. A thorough task orientation for Job Shadowing participants is appropriate, but only to the extent that the participant observes and asks questions to understand the basic concept of the task demonstrated.

C. VOLUNTEERS. A volunteer is a person who provides services of his or her own free will to the County and neither receives nor expects to receive any kind of pay or compensation for these services. Generally, the services performed are associated with typical volunteer duties, such as being a greeter at a fund-raising event or serving food at a shelter, as opposed to performing tasks that would normally be done by employees of the County. Volunteers are not considered employees by any definition and may be required to sign confidentiality agreements or other waivers.

An employee shall be considered a volunteer only if the employee does NOT perform the same type of services as those for which the employee proposes to volunteer. [Ord. 2016-17, 12-13-2016]

HR0246 TELECOMMUTING AND REMOTE WORK. Jefferson County considers telecommuting or remote work to be a viable alternative work arrangement in cases where the individual employee, the position, and the supervisor are well- suited to such an arrangement. Not all employees and positions are suitable for telecommuting or remote work. Suitability for telecommuting or remote work is based upon the individual employee as well as the employee's position and is to be determined by the employee's supervisor and approved per this Ordinance.

PURPOSE: Telecommuting allows employees to work at home, on the road, or in a satellite location for all or part of their workweek. Jefferson County considers telecommuting to be a viable, flexible work option when both the employee and the job are suited to such an arrangement. Telecommuting may be appropriate for some employees and jobs, but not for others. Telecommuting is a privilege and not an entitlement.

PROCEDURES:

A. ELIGIBILITY

Either an employee or a supervisor can suggest telecommuting as a possible work arrangement, but all arrangements must be approved by the manager/supervisor and department head, and a Remote/Telecommuting agreement completed. Any long-term arrangements also require approval by the Human Resources Director. Before entering into any telecommuting agreement, the employee and manager/supervisor, with the assistance of the Human Resources department if needed, will evaluate the suitability of such an arrangement, reviewing the following areas:

1. Employee suitability. The employee and manager/supervisor will assess the needs and work habits of the employee, compared to traits customarily recognized as appropriate for successful telecommuters. This includes, but is not limited to, job performance, interaction with others, attendance, personal accountability, safety habits, and behavioral impacts on the department.
2. Job responsibilities. The employee and manager/supervisor will discuss the job responsibilities and determine if the position is appropriate for a telecommuting arrangement.
3. Equipment needs, workspace design considerations and scheduling issues. The employee and manager/supervisor will review the physical workspace needs and the appropriate location for the telework. This includes the ability to ensure accountability of the employee and network security and privacy protocols.
4. Home environment. The employee and manager/supervisor will review the home environment to ensure it is one where the employee can work productively, without frequent interruptions, and safely.
5. Staffing needs. The manager/supervisor will assess the needs of the department and remaining staff who are not working remotely to ensure the public's needs are met and additional workload is not imposed on existing staff.

All remote/telecommuting arrangements will be made on a case-by-case basis, focusing first on the business needs of the County and the citizens served.

The Remote/Telecommuting Agreement will be active on a calendar-year basis, shall be renewed annually, and may be revoked at any time by the Department Head

B. CATEGORIES

1. Short-term remote/telecommuting arrangements may be approved for circumstances such as inclement weather, special projects, or business travel. Other short-term arrangements may be made for employees needing to care for an immediate family member who is self-sufficient. For example, consideration may be given for a parent caring for their 12-year-old child, who cannot be left alone all day, but is able to care for himself/herself. Approval may be granted in circumstances where an employee would otherwise be eligible to use sick leave but may not be used to allow an employee to avoid using scheduled vacation/holiday/compensatory leave. These arrangements are approved on an as needed basis only, with no expectation by employees of continued approval.
2. Long-term remote/telecommuting arrangements will be considered in atypical circumstances or for results-orientated positions where there is a business reason to support the arrangement (such as employees on family or medical leave, an agreed condition of employment, lack of adequate physical space in a department). Long-term arrangements may also include working remotely on a continued intermittent basis such as working remotely one day per week.

Because remote/telecommuting eliminates or greatly reduces the ability for many employees to provide essential face-to-face service to the citizens of Jefferson County, telecommuting requests in excess of 12 weeks will be considered only as a reasonable accommodation as required by the Americans with Disabilities Act, the Wisconsin Fair Employment Law, any other Federal or State law whereby a work accommodation is legally required, or as a business necessity (including for results-oriented positions) only if the employee is able to continue to complete all essential functions of the position. Telecommuting requests under this paragraph must be approved by the Department Head and Human Resources Director.

Any telecommuting arrangement made will be on a trial basis and may be discontinued at will and at any time at the request of either the telecommuter or the County. Every effort will be made to provide one week notice of such change to accommodate commuting, childcare, and other issues that may arise from the termination of a telecommuting arrangement. There may be instances, however, when no notice is possible due to business necessity.

C. EXPECTATIONS

When telecommuting, employees are still obligated to comply with all Jefferson County rules, policies, and procedures. Violation of such rules, policies, and procedures may result in immediate termination of telecommuting arrangements and corrective and/or disciplinary action. Telecommuting does not change the terms and conditions of employment with Jefferson County. County and department demands remain a priority.

1. Time Keeping Requirements. Employees are to accurately record all hours worked to ensure compliance with the recordkeeping and overtime requirements under State and Federal law as well as County policy and substitute applicable leave as appropriate for hours not worked. Employees shall also accurately indicate on their time sheets that the work completed was done remotely.
2. Normal work hours. Unless pre-approved, employees are expected to work and be responsive during their normal work schedule. This ensures that co-workers and members of the public can maintain necessary communication with the employee. Employees should continue to take regularly scheduled breaks and stand up and move around occasionally. Personal tasks and errands may only be performed during the employee's scheduled breaks and lunches.
3. Productivity and Presence. Employees are expected to maintain at least the same level of productivity and presence as when physically on-site. Presence may be maintained by using appropriate technology including, but not limited to, a computer, email, telephone, messaging applications, video conferencing, instant messaging, and/or text messaging. The employee is expected to maintain the same response times as if they were at their regular county location and will make themselves available to attend scheduled work meetings as required and/or requested.

Evaluation of telecommuter performance by a manager/supervisor will include regular interaction by phone, email, and video conferencing and weekly face-to-face meetings to discuss work progress and problems. Evaluation of telecommuter performance will be consistent with that received by employees working at the office in both content and frequency.

An appropriate level of communication between the telecommuter and supervisor will be agreed to as part of the discussion process. The manager/supervisor and telecommuter will communicate at a level consistent with employees working at the office or in a manner and frequency that is appropriate for the job and the individuals involved.

4. Dress appropriately. Employees are expected to dress as if they are in the office or meeting with the public. Employees may be asked to join a virtual meeting with little or no notice, and it is expected employees continue to represent the county and the department in a professional manner, including appearance.

5. Safe workplace. Maintaining a safe home office is the teleworker's responsibility. Employees need to ensure that their workspace is safe and free from any hazards, including, but not limited to: away from noise and distractions; floors are clear from trip hazards; drawers do not open into walkways or cause a tripping hazard; electrical cords are secured under a desk or along a wall and away from heat sources; temperature, ventilation, and lighting are adequate; carpets or rugs are well-secured to the floor and free of frayed seams; there is a working smoke detector in the workspace; walkways and doorways are free of clutter and unobstructed; an evacuation plan is created in the event of a fire and a shelter-in-place plan in the event of severe weather; sufficient electrical outlets are accessible and equipment is connected to a surge protector; electrical plugs, cords, outlets are in good condition; workstation is ergonomically correct with adjustable chair, back adequately supported by a backrest and feet are on the floor or supported by a footrest, enough leg room at your desk, sufficient lighting for reading, computer screen is at eye level and free from noticeable glare, and space to rest arms while not keying.

Injuries sustained by the employee in a home office location and in conjunction with his or her regular work duties are normally covered by the county's workers' compensation policy. Telecommuting employees are responsible for notifying the employer of such injuries as soon as practicable. The employee is liable for any injuries sustained by visitors to his or her home worksite.

Non-work activities may not interfere with remote/telecommuting arrangement. Employees shall set up a separate space in their home or other remote area to work. This will assist in splitting home and work activities. Workspace should be free from unnecessary interruptions and communicate to family and roommates that even though you are at home, you are unavailable during your scheduled work hours. Employees may be required to show proof that their remote work environment is safe and constructive. This may include submitting photos, site visits from the supervisor, or other means that may demonstrate the physical set-up of the remote location. Under no circumstances will employees meet with clients or members of the public on behalf of Jefferson County at the employee's home.

6. Computer and other Equipment.

Employees shall use Jefferson County issued equipment to access County email and systems via the Virtual Private Network. The use of equipment, software and supplies provided by the County is limited to use by authorized personnel and for purposes relating to County business. Jefferson County reserves the right to monitor work activity.

Employees must ensure the safekeeping of all County documents, systems, and equipment. Restricted access and confidential material may not be taken out of the office or remotely accessed without approval by the department head.

Employees must have a working telephone or cellphone at their remote location and appropriate internet connection. Employees should either check their voice messages frequently throughout the day or have incoming calls forwarded to their remote location phone.

The County assumes no responsibility for operating costs, supply costs, or damage to personal equipment because of the remote/telecommuting arrangement including, but not limited to personal computers, printers, personal devices, cellular or standard telephones. Examples of costs include utility, telephone bills, internet costs, supply costs used in home.

7. Security.

Consistent with the county's expectations of information security for employees working at the office, telecommuting employees will be expected to ensure the protection of proprietary county and customer/client information accessible from their home office. Steps include the use of locked file cabinets and desks, regular password maintenance, and any other measures appropriate for the job and the environment.

8. Childcare.

Telecommuting is not designed to be a replacement for appropriate childcare. Although an individual employee's schedule may occasionally be modified to accommodate childcare needs, the focus of the arrangement must remain on job performance and meeting business demands. Prospective telecommuters are encouraged to discuss expectations of telecommuting with family members prior to entering a telecommuting agreement. [cr. ord. 2021-5; 07-13-2021]

COMPENSATION.

HR0310

APPLICABLE PAY RATES FOR NEW EMPLOYEES. Whenever it is appropriate and possible, new employees shall be hired at the minimum step of the pay range. If, because of remarkably higher levels of education, experience, or difficult market conditions (as may be evidenced by difficulty in recruiting), the candidate will require a salary beyond the minimum, the County Administrator or Human Resources Director may authorize an advanced starting salary and additional benefits such as additional or accelerated step increases; hire-on, retention, performance or other bonuses; immediate health insurance; or additional weeks of accrued paid time off (vacation, sick, holiday, random, compensatory time). A report to the Human Resources Committee will be given summarizing the exceptions. Consideration must be given to the current compensation of other employees in the same classification, if applicable, to maintain internal pay equity. It is not in the County's best interests to promote a practice of hiring employees higher in the range and then adjusting current incumbents' pay thereafter. Department heads are not authorized to make compensation or benefit offers to potential candidates that exceed the entry-level step. [Res. 2001-117, 3/12/02, effective 6/30/02; am. 09/11/07, ord. 2007-19; am. 3/13/21, ord. 2011-31; Ord. Pay reductions of this nature shall not be made without notice. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
- B. An employee who is demoted or transferred for involuntary reasons not related to performance will retain the present salary if the salary exceeds the new range maximum for 90 days. If the present salary is below the new range maximum, the employee will be placed in the new range at the step that provides the least amount of decrease. As long as an employee's salary exceeds the new range maximum, the employee will not be eligible for further base-accumulating pay increases until the employee's salary is again within the salary range for the new position. The 90-day grace period does not apply to red-circled employees as the result of the pay plan adopted effective December 30, 2012. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

- D. An "interim" title is used if an employee is assigned for a longer period of time, usually exceeding 30 calendar days but less than one year. If assigned to an interim position by the County Administrator, the assignment will not require confirmation by the Board as it is a temporary placement. An "acting" title is used if the position is being temporarily filled for a short period of time, usually 30 calendar days or less, and the employee will not receive additional compensation. [am. ord. 2005-15, 8/09/05; am. 02/10/09, ord. 2008-35; lettered & am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

As long as an employee's salary exceeds the new range maximum, the employee will not be eligible for further base-accumulating pay increases until the employee's salary is again within the salary range for the new position. If the present salary is below the new range maximum, the employee will be placed in the new range at the step that provides the least amount of decrease, which includes a step that may be equal to the current rate of pay. The 90-day grace period does not apply to red-circled employees as the result of the pay plan adopted effective December 30, 2012. These employees shall maintain the present salary until such a time that the new range meets or exceeds the preset rate of pay or as otherwise approved by County Board.  - a. Employees' work hours are typically based on a 40-hour work week, with hours to be established by the department head to ensure that staff is available during business hours to assist the general public and clients the County serves. The core business hours at the Courthouse shall be 8:00 a.m. – 4:30 p.m., Monday through Friday, excluding holidays.  - e. If circumstances require, a department head may modify the hours of work for an employee. If a modification greater than one hour before and/or one hour after the core hours is needed in excess of a week, it shall be approved by the County

Administrator, not less than on an annual basis. [am. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21]

- f. Highway Employees: The core hours for the Highway department will be as follows: 7:00am – 3:30pm, Monday through Friday, with summer hours from 6:00am to 4:30pm, Monday through Thursday, beginning the week after Memorial Day through the week prior to Labor Day. The department head or designee may flex work hours up to one hour before and/or one hour after the core hours of work. In addition, the department head may adjust the core hours of work based on operational needs by posting the changes for employees, no less than 72 hours in advance. [cr. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21]
 - g. Communication Operators. In lieu of the typical 40-hour work week, Communication Operators shall work a schedule consisting of five (5) days on followed by two (2) days off, followed by five (5) days on followed by three (3) days off. This rotation shall then repeat. [cr. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21]
2. Classified employees who are subject to the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act shall receive overtime compensation at the rate of one and one-half times the employee's regular hourly rate or accrue compensatory time at the rate of one and one-half hours for all hours actually worked over forty (40) hours in a workweek in accordance with the provisions of this policy. - a. Maintenance Workers, including Courthouse, Human Services, Parks and Fair. Maintenance staff required to respond to a public service emergency call-in shall be paid at one and one-half (1 ½) times the hourly rate, unless the call in is immediately preceding or following the employee's scheduled shift. All other hours shall be paid at the regular rate of pay unless required otherwise under provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act. [cr. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21]

 - c. Fair Week. Section 13(a)(3) of the Fair Labor Standards Act provides an exemption from FLSA overtime provisions for certain situations for an establishment which is an amusement or recreational establishment. During the week prior to, the week of, and the week following, any employee devoting 100% of work time to the operation of the County Fair is exempt from overtime, and all hours worked are paid at the regular rate of pay. [cr. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21]
 - d. Communication Operators. Any time worked outside of the employee's scheduled hours of work shall be paid at one and one-half (1 ½) time the hourly rate of pay. In addition, Communication Operators may substitute, or trade shifts, with co-workers. Section 7(p)(3) of the FLSA provides that two individuals employed in any occupation by the same public agency may agree, solely at their option and with the approval of the public agency, to substitute for one another during scheduled work hours in performance of work in the same capacity. The hours worked shall be excluded by the employer in the calculation of the hours for which the substituting employee would otherwise be entitled to overtime compensation under the Act. Where one employee substitutes for another, each employee will be credited as if he or she had worked his or her normal work schedule for that shift. [cr. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21]

3. It is the policy of the County to avoid overtime work. Daily work schedules may be modified within the work week to accommodate workload fluctuations without accrual of compensatory time or payment of overtime. An employee shall work the hours prescribed by the employee's department head and shall work additional hours or overtime when directed to do so by the department head, manager or supervisor. Overtime shall be assigned within departments reasonably equally among the employees who normally do the work during their regular work day, whenever feasible. [am. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21]
4. Employees must receive permission from the employee's immediate supervisor to work unscheduled additional hours, overtime or accrue compensatory time. Advance written approval may be required by the department head or authorized supervisor to use accumulated compensatory time. If compensatory time will be accrued for overtime hours worked in lieu of payment at the overtime rate, an understanding to that effect must be reached between the employee and the supervisor prior to the authorization to work overtime hours. [am. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21]
5. When accrual of compensatory time is authorized, the following provisions shall apply:
 - a. Department heads shall have full responsibility and discretion for limiting the amount of compensatory time earned, providing it is equal to or less than the maximum established below. [cr. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21]
 - b. An employee must have the appropriate department head's prior approval to use accumulated compensatory time. The dates when compensatory time off shall be granted shall be determined by agreement between the employee and the employee's department head.
 - c. Whenever possible, compensatory time is to be taken within thirty (30) days of the date it is earned, and taken with the prior approval of the department head. The use of compensatory time must not conflict with the needs of the department. Under normal circumstances, it is expected that compensatory time be used on an on-going basis as the workload permits, and not as a vacation supplement or addition.
 - d. The maximum amount of compensatory time which may be accumulated is 160 hours of overtime worked or 240 hours of compensatory time. An employee who has accrued the maximum number of hours of compensatory time may reduce the hours below the maximum by the use of time off and resume accrual of compensatory time. [am. ord. 2006-30, 3/13/06; am. 12/13/11, ord. 2011-21; am. 12/09/14, ord. 2014-32].
 - e. Any employee may request all or a portion of earned compensatory time to be paid out at any time during the year, providing it is paid out in the same year it was earned. Approval of a pay out of compensatory time request will require the approval of the department head and the Human Resources Director and shall not impose any disadvantage to the County. The maximum amount of accumulated compensatory time allowed shall be reduced by the number of hours paid out. [Ord. 2016-12, 10-11-16]

EMPLOYEE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM (EAP). [cr. 08/09/05, ord. 2005-14]

It is the policy of Jefferson County to provide a practical, constructive mechanism for assisting employees with personal problems which may affect the work situation, or to aid those employees and family members who voluntarily wish to use the program to resolve a personal problem.

The Employee Assistance Program (EAP) is being offered to all employees, dependents, and other members of the employee's household. The philosophy and purpose of this program is as follows:

- A. Jefferson County will encourage employees and family members who are experiencing personal problems to take advantage of the assessment, counseling and referral services available on a voluntary basis through the EAP. Problems may include emotional and mental issues, family concerns, alcohol and drug problems, and questions related to financial and legal concerns. Early intervention and assistance minimizes the adverse impact on an employee's personal/family life and job performance.
- B. Jefferson County believes that an employee's job performance may also be affected when a family member is experiencing personal issues. For this reason, Jefferson County extends the same offer of referral to any member of the employee's household.
- C. Employees or family members who seek assistance voluntarily will be able to do so with complete anonymity and confidentiality within the limits of state and federal law. It is understood that federal and state laws require the disclosure of certain information when an EAP clinician or consultant has reasonable suspicion that physical or sexual abuse or neglect of a child or vulnerable adult has occurred, or when there is a threat of harm to oneself or another person by an employee or family member seeking EAP services, or when client records are subpoenaed by a court of law.
- D. Referrals for assessment, counseling and referral to outside EAP resources should be only at the employee's request and/or on the basis of job-related behavior.
- E. Implementation of this policy will not require or result in any special privileges or exemption from the job performance requirements and standards.
- F. Management and supervisory personnel will inform employees with personal problems that job security or opportunities for promotion will not be jeopardized by a request and/or referral to the EAP.
- G. An employee's acceptance, rejection, or failure to respond to treatment does not diminish the employee's responsibility to meet required job performance standards.
- H. It is not the EAP's role to provide diagnosis and/or recommendations regarding an employee's ability to perform assigned job tasks. However, the EAP will assist supervisors with referring the employee to an appropriate medical professional to diagnose and determine the employee's fitness for duty.
- I. EAP records are the property of the contracted agency and will be confidentially preserved in the same manner as medical records. Personal information gathered after supervisory referrals will not be revealed to management or to the supervisor without consent of the employee and will not be part of the employee's health records. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
- J. All EAP services (assessment, referral, short-term counseling, if available, and follow-up) are free of charge. In some instances, referrals to service providers outside the EAP may be recommended. Any costs for services outside of the EAP are the employee's responsibility. The employee is also responsible for determining if the outside services recommended by the EAP are covered under an eligible health benefit plan.

FAMILY MEDICAL LEAVE ACT AND MILITARY FAMILY LEAVE ACT.

[recreated 04/21/09, ord. 2009-04]

A. General Provisions

It is the policy of Jefferson County to grant from two to twenty-six weeks of leave for reasons listed under Section C of this policy during a 12-month period to eligible employees, in accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 and the Military Family Leave Act. These leaves may be paid, unpaid, or a combination of paid and unpaid, depending on the circumstances and as specified in this policy. Wisconsin State FMLA, Worker's Comp and County Leaves of Absence run concurrently with the Federal Leave.

B. Eligibility

In order to qualify for both State and Federal Leave, both of the following conditions must be met:

1. Jefferson County must have employed the employee for at least 12 months (52 consecutive weeks for State). The 12 months of employment need not have been consecutive under Federal FMLA, but must not have a break in service within the previous seven years.
2. The employee must have worked at least 1,250 hours for Federal leave and 1,000 paid hours for Wisconsin leave during the 12 month period immediately before the date when the leave would begin.

C. Type of Leave Covered

In order to be eligible for leave under this policy, the employee must be taking the leave for one of the following reasons:

1. The birth of a child, or placement of a child with the employee for adoption
2. Placement with the employee of a son or daughter for foster care
3. The employee's own serious health condition;
4. The employee is needed to care for the employee's spouse; child; parent due to his/her serious health condition.
5. The employee needs to care for the employee's parent-in-law; domestic partner (as defined in sec. 40.02(21d) or 770.01(1), Wis. Stats.); or domestic partner's parent, due to his/her serious health condition (State Leave Only) [am. 10/27/09, Ord. 2009-15]
6. A qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that the employee's spouse; son/daughter; parent (the covered military member) is on covered active duty or called to covered active duty in a foreign country and is a member of the Regular Armed Forces. (Exigency: Non-Medical; Non-Routine)[am. 12/15/09, ord. 2009-21; am 04/16/2013, ord 2013-02]
7. The employee is the spouse, son/daughter, parent or next of kin of a covered service member with a serious injury or illness, including a covered veteran receiving treatment, recuperation or therapy for a serious injury or illness either received while on active duty or that existed before active duty and were aggravated by service in the line of duty on active duty in the Armed Forces. The veteran must have been other than dishonorably discharged and must have served in the military at some point within the five preceding years. (Military Caregiver Leave) [am. 12-15-09, ord. 2009-21; am 04/16/2013, ord 2013-02]
8. The employee is called to active duty in the Military
9. A qualifying exigency arising out of the fact that the employee may need to care for a military member's parent who is incapable of self-care when the care is necessitated by the member's covered active duty [cr. 04/16/2013, ord 2013-02]

Qualifying exigency leave may be taken for any of the following reasons: short notice deployment; military events and related activities; childcare and school activities; financial and legal arrangements; counseling; rest and recuperation; post-deployment activities; arranging for alternate care; and additional activities. The amount of time an eligible employee may take for Rest and Recuperation qualifying exigency leave is a maximum of 15 calendar days. [cr. 04/16/2013, ord 2013-02]

A serious health condition under Federal Law is defined as a condition that requires that an individual must be incapacitated for more than 3 full calendar days and the individual must have had at least 2 in-person visits to the health care provider within 30 days of each other. Treatment requires an in-person visit with the health care provider for examination, evaluation or specific treatment; a phone call, letter, fax, e-mail or text message is not sufficient.

For chronic conditions, including intermittent and reduced scheduled leaves, the individual must have at least two in-person visits to the health care provider for medical treatment/examination every year to qualify. Recertification will be required every 6 months for chronic conditions resulting in intermittent and reduced schedule leaves.

A serious health condition under State Law is defined as a disabling physical or mental illness, injury, impairment or condition involving inpatient care in a hospital, nursing home or hospice, or out-patient care that requires continuing treatment or supervision by a health care provider.

A qualified employee can take up to 26 weeks of leave under this policy for military caregiver leave during a single 12-month period. For military caregiver leave, the 12-month period begins on the first day the employee takes FMLA leave and ends 12 months after that date.

If a husband and wife both work for Jefferson County, and each wishes to take leave for the birth of a child, adoption or placement of a child for foster care, the husband and wife may take a combined total of 12 weeks of leave. Leave granted for the birth of a child, or placement of a child for adoption or foster care must be concluded within a 12-month period beginning from the date of the event for Federal Leave. State Leave requires leave to be taken within the period from 16 weeks prior to the birth/adoption to 16 weeks after the birth/adoption of the child.

For all other types of FMLA leave, Jefferson County measures the 12-month period on a calendar year basis, beginning January 1 of each year.

D. Substitution of Pay

The leave may be paid, unpaid, or a combination of paid and unpaid, depending on the circumstances and as specified in this policy, by electing to use appropriate accrued balances.

E. Intermittent Leave

Intermittent Leave will be allowed as required by law; or, if not required by law, as determined by the department head and Human Resources Department that the intermittent leave would not result in hardship for the department or Jefferson County. Benefits will accrue on a pro-rated basis, in accordance with any other unpaid leave rules.

F. Employee Benefits During Leave

An employee may continue medical and dental benefits under the same conditions and at the same cost, if any, as if the employee had continued to work. If the employee chooses not to return to work for reasons other than a continued serious health condition, Jefferson County will require the employee to reimburse the County the amount charged to the employee's department for the employee's health insurance during the leave.

Employees whose FMLA leave runs concurrently with the exhaustion of paid leave time will continue to have premiums payroll deducted, if applicable. Benefit premiums, if any, due during unpaid FMLA leave time will be billed to the employee. Employees choosing not to retain medical and or dental coverage during FMLA leave will have benefits reinstated on the same terms as prior to taking the leave without any qualifying period.

Holiday and Vacation will accrue as if the employee was actually working for all hours under FMLA, paid and unpaid. Sick accruals, however, will accrue in accordance with other unpaid leaves and will not accrue on unpaid FMLA hours. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

Employees taking unpaid FMLA will be responsible for all benefit premiums that are payroll deducted including, but not limited to, health and dental insurance premium contributions, 125B and life insurance deductions.

G. Employee Status after Leave

An employee, who is not a "key" employee, who takes a leave under this policy will be returned to the same or an equivalent position with the same benefits and terms of employment.

H. Certification

Jefferson County may ask for sufficient certification to support the employees request for FMLA leave, sufficient documentation to establish the required relationship between the employee and their family member, proof of exigency or any other information needed to determine whether or not the employee qualifies for the leave. Failure to provide this information may result in a denial of the leave.

Certification forms and other requested documentation must be filled out completely and returned within 15 days in order to determine whether or not the employee qualifies for FMLA or MFLA. If forms are not returned within 15 days, unless it is not practicable under the particular circumstances despite diligent good faith efforts FMLA may be denied and the time off will not be designated or protected under the FMLA or MFLA.

Jefferson County has the right to ask for a second opinion (at its own expense). If it becomes necessary to resolve a conflict between the original and the second opinion, Jefferson County may require the opinion of a third doctor (again, at its own expense). This third opinion will be considered final.

The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) prohibits employers and other entities covered by GINA Title II from requesting or requiring genetic information of employees or their family members. Jefferson County will comply with this law by informing healthcare providers responding to requests for medical information to not provide genetic information. Genetic information, as defined by GINA, includes an individual's family medical history, the results of an individual's or family member's genetic tests, the fact that an individual or an individual's family member sought or received genetic services, and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or an individual's family member or an embryo lawfully held by an individual or family member receiving assistive reproductive services. [am. 02/08/11, ord. 2010-25]

I. Procedure for Requesting Leave

Except where leave is not foreseeable, all employees requesting leave under this policy should submit the request to the Human Resources Department or immediate supervisor.

When a leave under this policy is foreseeable, the employee must give the County 30 days notice. If it is not possible to give 30 days' notice, the employee must give as much notice as is feasible. An employee undergoing planned medical treatment is required to make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment to minimize disruptions to County operations. If an employee fails to provide 30 days notice for foreseeable leave with no reasonable excuse for the delay, the leave request may be denied until at least 30 days from the date the employer receives notice. While on leave, employees may be requested by the Human Resources Department to report periodically the status of the medical condition and intent to return to work.

J. Return to Work

Where an absence is caused by the employee's serious health condition, the employee is required to present a certification of fitness to return to work to the Human Resources Department. No employee may return to work without such a certification. The fitness to return to work certification must be signed by a physician or health care provider as defined by applicable law. Employees are expected to return to work when released by the employee's health care provider (or when the family member is released). Failure to return to work after the employee's release or family member's release will be considered cause for disciplinary action in accordance with Jefferson County Discipline policy and labor union contracts.

If the employee returns to work within the time frame allowed for the requested type of leave, the employee will be returned to the same or a substantially similar position, unless notified that the employee is a "key" employee. A substantially similar position is defined as a job of similar job duties, job classification, work hours, and salary as that which the employee held at the time the leave began. An employee, however, has no greater right to reinstatement or to other conditions of employment than if the employee had been continuously employed during the FMLA leave period.

If the employee is not released to return to work within the approved qualified time, the employee may request a personal leave of absence in accordance with applicable contracts and policies. While on a personal leave of absence, employees must exhaust all of their accrued time (vacation, sick, holiday, random, compensatory time) prior to taking time off without pay, or according to HR0450, Leave of Absence without Pay. Once the employee is on unpaid leave for the 30-day grace period, Jefferson County will no longer pay the employer share of benefits, and some benefits may be cancelled altogether. After the 30-day grace period the employee will be sent COBRA notification which allows them to purchase health insurance at the current active rate. The 30-day grace period runs concurrently with FMLA; therefore, employees requesting a personal leave may have benefits affected immediately upon expiration of FMLA. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

K. Enforcement

An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer; 1-866-487-9243; TTY 1-877-889-5627 or www.wagehour.dol.gov or the State of Wisconsin, Department of Workforce Development, Equal Rights Division; 1-608-266-6860 (Madison); 1-414-227-4384 (Milwaukee) or www.dwd.wisconsin.gov. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

FMLA does not affect any Federal or State law prohibiting discrimination, or supersede any State or local law or collective bargaining agreement which provides greater family or medical leave rights. [HR0430 recreated 04/21/09, ord. 2009-04]

HARASSMENT POLICY, INCLUDING SEXUAL HARASSMENT.

It is the belief of Jefferson County that all employees should be able to enjoy a work environment free from all forms of discrimination, and harassing conduct, including sexual harassment. Harassment on the basis of an employee's race, color, creed, ancestry, national origin, age, disability, sex, arrest or conviction record, marital status, sexual orientation, membership in the military reserve or use or nonuse of lawful products away from work is expressly prohibited under this policy. Therefore, the policy and procedure of Jefferson County shall be as follows: [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

- A. Jefferson County will not tolerate harassment of employees, or of employees performing services for Jefferson County, by anyone, including any supervisor, co-worker, vendor, client, or customer of Jefferson County or any third party employee. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
- B. In general, harassment means persistent and unwelcome conduct or actions on any of the factors above. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 - 1. Sexual harassment is one type of harassment and includes unwelcome sexual advances, requests for sexual favors, or other unwelcome verbal, visual or physical or visual conduct of a sexual nature includes, but is not limited to the repeated making of unsolicited, inappropriate gestures or comments or the display of offensive sexually graphic materials. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 - 2. Harassment on any basis (race, sex, age, disability, etc.) exists whenever:
 - a. Submission to such conduct is made explicitly or implicitly a condition of an employee's continued employment;
 - b. Submission to or rejection of such conduct is the basis for employment decisions affecting the employee, such as promotions or job transfers;
 - c. Such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonably interfering with a reasonable individual's work performance or of creating an intimidating, hostile or offensive working environment. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 - 3. Harassment may be subtle, manipulative and is not always evident. It does not refer to occasional compliments of a socially acceptable nature. It refers to behavior that is not welcome and is personally offensive. All forms of gender harassment are covered, including sexual harassment. Men can be harassed by either women or other men; women can be harassed by either men or other women; offenders can be managers, supervisors, co-workers, and non-employees such as clients or vendors. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 - 4. Some examples of verbal harassment include jokes, insults and innuendoes (based on race, sex, age, disability, etc.), degrading remarks, referring to someone as a stud, hunk or babe; whistling; cat calls; comments on a person's body or sex life. Some examples of non-verbal harassment include gestures, staring, touching, hugging, patting, blocking a person's movement, brushing against a person's body, display of sexually suggestive or degrading pictures or emails, racist or other derogatory cartoons or drawings. - C. Any employee who believes he or she has experienced or witnessed harassment should report the alleged act immediately, preferably within 48 hours, to any one of the following individuals.
 - 1. Human Resources Director
 - 2. Immediate Supervisor

- D. An investigation of all complaints will be undertaken immediately. All information disclosed in the complaint and the investigation procedure will be held in the strictest confidence and only disclosed when necessary to investigate and resolve the matter. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

- E. The County forbids retaliation against anyone for reporting harassment, assisting in making a harassment complaint, or cooperating in a harassment investigation. If an employee feels retaliated against, the employee should notify the Human Resources Director, the department head or the supervisor, and an investigation will also be undertaken immediately. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
- F. A false allegation of harassment of any kind is a violation of this policy and is itself subject to disciplinary action. To constitute such a violation, however, the complaint would ordinarily need to be false as to a specific allegation of fact. That an investigating party or committee should, while agreeing on factual matters alleged, nevertheless differ in judgment or interpretation of the incident and conclude that it did not constitute harassment, would not make the complaint a violation apart from evidence of conscious and willful intent to distort or exaggerate the allegation and damage the accused party. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
- G. The County trusts that all employees will continue to act responsibly to establish a pleasant working environment free of discrimination and harassment. The County views harassment, sexual harassment, retaliation and false allegations to be serious misconduct in the workplace. Consequently, appropriate disciplinary or corrective action, ranging from a warning to termination, can be expected. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

Department heads may grant voluntary unpaid time in increments of 4 or 8-hours (or 5 or 10-hours if working four 10-hour days) which shall be limited to five (5) days or 40 hours in a calendar year, which shall not be considered leave under HR0450(C). Additional unpaid leave may be granted in smaller increments only after all applicable accrued time has been used, unless otherwise provided under State or Federal Regulations. Approval of any voluntary unpaid leave of absence shall be at the sole discretion of the department head subject to the provisions of this policy. Department heads shall ensure that an approved voluntary unpaid leave of absence will not result in overtime work for the employee upon return from leave or overtime work for remaining staff during leave. When considering departmental staffing requirements, department heads shall give preference to employee vacation requests before considering employee requests for voluntary unpaid leave of absence. If a holiday occurs during a voluntary leave without pay, the employee will receive holiday pay if eligible. Once the employee has requested the time off and it has been approved by the Department Head, the leave cannot be rescinded by the employee unless required by law. The department head may rescind the approved time off if necessitated by business need. Once the leave has been taken, there can be no rescission or retroactive substitution of accrued time. Department heads shall file the appropriate form with the Human Resources Department indicating the beginning date and ending date of such leave. MILITARY LEAVE DONATION. Under the Military Leave Donation program, a Leave Bank is available to provide additional paid days for employees who have exhausted all accumulated vacation, compensatory time and banked holidays and who have been called to active duty for a minimum of six months. Donation and Recipient requests can be made through the Human Resources Department.

MILITARY LEAVE PROCEDURE.A. Requests

1. Service in the uniformed services means the performance of duty on a voluntary or involuntary basis in a uniformed service under competent authority, as defined in 20 CFR Part 1002.5. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
2. An employee of the uniformed services, or an appropriate officer of said employee, shall provide notice to the Human Resources Department that the employee intends to leave the employment position to perform service in the uniformed services, in accordance with 20 CFR, Part 1002.85. Whenever possible, notice should be given 30 days before the start of the anticipated leave. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
3. Although notice may be given in either verbal or written format, to best coordinate the leave, it is preferred that the employee present an application or letter indicating the change to active military status, including the expected length of time the employee will be gone. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

B. Seniority and Benefits

1. Seniority will continue to accrue while on military leave. Seniority, for purposes of this section, is consistent with USERRA, meaning longevity in employment together with any benefits of employment that accrue with, or are determined by, longevity in employment. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
2. Jefferson County will voluntarily maintain health and dental insurance coverage for an active service member under the same terms and conditions as any active employee for 18 months. This includes requiring the active service member to pay the "active" employee contribution.

Following the first 18 months of the group health and dental coverage maintained as an active employee, the service member shall be offered Continuation of Health insurance under the group plan for 24 months, in compliance with requirements under USERRA. The employee will be required to pay 100% of the premium, which is due by the 20th of the month prior to the month of coverage.

If the employee does not return to work within 42 months, the employee will be offered an additional 18 months of continuation of coverage as permitted under Federal COBRA regulations. The employee will be required to pay 102% of the full premium for COBRA coverage. [am. 08/05, ord. 2004-35; am 01/13/09, ord. 2008-33; am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31; ord. 2018-17, 10/23/18; ord. 2021-17, 02/08/22]

3. WRS [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 - a. If an employee is covered by a collective bargaining agreement under which the County will pay the total WRS employee-required contributions, the employee will receive contributions and service credit for the time he or she was on a military leave of absence. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 - b. If an employee is not covered by a collective bargaining agreement under which the County will pay the WRS employee-required contributions, when the employee returns to employment, the employee will have the choice whether to make up all, some or none of the total WRS employee-required contributions dating to the employee's military leave of absence. The employee-required contributions for repayment are to be made beginning with the date of reemployment, and ending on the earlier of: (1) three times the period of military service, or; (2) five years. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

- c. The employer is required to make employer-required contributions to match the contributions made by the employee. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 - d. In order to ensure that an employee receives his or her rights under USERRA, the employee should provide Human Resources with the following information upon return from Military leave: 1) How much, if any, of the employee-contributions the employee intends to make up and 2) a copy of the employee's DD-214, or if the employee did not receive a DD-214 based on the length of service, a copy of his or her military orders. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 - e. With respect to service credit, an employee will generally receive WRS service credit for up to five years of eligible military service whether the employee chooses to make up all, some or none of the employee-required make-up contributions. There are Federal and State exceptions to the years of WRS service credit. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
4. Life insurance will continue under the group plan for a minimum of 30 days of unpaid leave. Once the insurance would normally end with the group plan, the employee may continue coverage by paying premiums to Jefferson County until the employee returns to work. The County will continue to pay the employer's required portion of the premium for the first 18 months, after which, the employee will be required to pay the additional required contribution. [am. 01/13/09, ord. 2008-33; renumbered 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 5. Vacation accrual rate will continue as if employee was not on military leave. Beginning in 2004, employees will receive the total vacation the employee would have earned as if any time on Military leave during the previous year was actual time worked. Any donated time counts toward this total time. [renumbered 01/13/09, ord. 2008-33; renumbered & am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 6. Sick or Holiday pay is not based on seniority and will, therefore, be handled in the same manner as any other leave of absence. Thereby, sick will not accrue while on Military leave, and Holiday pay will be distributed as if the employee was actively working. In addition, if an employee does not return to work after discharge, the employee will be responsible for returning any overpayment of holiday pay received. [renumbered 01/13/09, ord. 2008-33; renumbered am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
 7. Contingency and Longevity. Military leave will count as hours worked for longevity and contingency purposes, providing the employee is eligible for the benefit as determined in HR0620 and HR0655. [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

C. Wages

1. Effective January 1, 2016, employees who are required to attend training as members of the uniformed services shall receive up to ten (10) days or eighty (80) hours, whichever is less, of pay per calendar year while attending said training. A county employee who is required to report for military training shall be paid his or her county pay, excluding overtime, upon submission of employee's leave and earnings statement (LES), less any military pay that the employee receives. If the military pay equals or exceeds the employee's county pay, no payment for salary or wages will be paid to the employee from the County. Allowances received during military training will be excluded from the pay calculation. [Ord. No. 2015-15, 10-13-15]
2. An employee has the choice to use vacation, holiday, sick, random or compensatory time, but cannot be forced to do so. However, any carryovers into the next calendar year will be limited in accordance with applicable ordinances. If an employee chooses to use accrued time, there is no requirement to submit a leave and earnings statement. [Ord. No. 2015-15, 10-13-15]

3. Any other Military Leave is unpaid. An employee has the choice to use vacation, holiday, random or compensatory time, but cannot be forced to do so. However, any carryovers into the next calendar year will be limited in accordance with applicable ordinances. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31; Ord. No. 2015-15, 10-13-15]
4. Employees on Military leave will continue to receive any 'across-the board' wage adjustment approved by County Board. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31; Ord. No. 2015-15, 10-13-15]
5. Employees shall receive any step increase they reasonably would have been afforded if they had been actively working. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31; Ord. No. 2015-15, 10-13-15]
6. Upon return from Military Leave, employees shall be promoted to positions that they reasonably would have been promoted to if they had been actively working and based on seniority. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31; Ord. No. 2015-15, 10-13-15]

D. Return from Military Leave

1. If employee is gone 1 – 30 days, the employee should report to work the next scheduled workday. Usually, 8 hours is given to rest before returning to work.
2. If employee is gone 31 – 180 days, the employee has 14 days to reapply and return to work.
3. If employee is gone 181 or more days, the employee has 90 days to reapply and return to work. [Ord. No. 2015-15, 10-13-15]
4. It is not reasonable to assume an employee will necessarily pass a probationary period, as defined in a union contract, without sufficient time to observe the employee's work. Therefore, if an employee is in a probationary period when military leave begins, the remainder of the probationary period must be completed upon return. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31; Ord. No. 2015-15, 10-13-15]
5. An employee returning from military leave has the right to be reemployed in a position according to USERRA regulations. This may include being promoted, reclassified, demoted, transferred, placed on layoff or terminated if circumstances changed as to make reemployment impossible or unreasonable. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31; Ord. No. 2015-15, 10-13-15]
6. If military leave lasts more than 30 days, Federal law gives employees certain job protection for 6 – 12 months after return.

NEPOTISM.

- A. It has been well accepted that employment of relatives in the same area of an organization can cause serious conflicts involving favoritism and employee morale. In these circumstances, all parties, including supervisors, are open to charges of inequitable consideration in decisions concerning work assignments, transfer opportunities, performance evaluations, promotions, demotions, disciplinary actions, pay increments, and terminations. In addition, to claims of partiality in work treatment, personal conflicts from outside the work environment can be carried into day to day working relationships.
- B. It is Jefferson County's policy that any member of the immediate family of persons currently employed with Jefferson County may be hired if they have participated in the recruitment and selection process in the same manner as other applicants, providing they will not be working directly for or directly or indirectly supervising a relative. For the purpose of this policy, immediate family includes: spouse, children, parents, siblings, grandparents, grandchildren, live-in companions and any step-relatives and in-laws of the aforementioned family members. This policy does not affect seasonal or emergency help employees.
- C. If a supervisory relationship of an immediate family member, as defined above, is established after employment, and if, at the employer's discretion a transfer/change of position is not available, one of the employees will be separated from County service. Every attempt will be made to effect transfer or separation on the basis of agreement between the involved employees and the County. If an agreement is unattainable, the Human Resource Director will decide the employee to be transferred or separated, with final approval by the County Administrator. The policy does not affect the occasional supervisory relationship of an immediate family member that may occur due to overlapping shifts, overtime shifts, or any other sporadic or irregular situation that may occur to ensure necessary staffing coverage. [Human Resources Committee, 11/25/03] [am. 02/08/11, ord. 2010-25; am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]

NURSING MOTHERS SUPPORT POLICY. [created 06/14/2011, Ord. 2011-07] Jefferson County recognizes a mother's responsibility to both her job and her child when she returns to work. Because of the many health benefits associated with breast feeding, more women are electing to continue breast feeding their infants upon return to work. Jefferson County supports this decision and is committed to enabling employees to maintain the breast-feeding relationship.

In keeping with this philosophy and in compliance with certain provisions of Section 7 of the Fair Labor Standards Act, Jefferson County will provide space, reasonable break time and support to employees needing to express milk for breast feeding for up to one year after the child's birth and subscribes to the following policy:

- A. Employees shall be provided a place to breastfeed or express their milk. Arrangements will be made to provide a place, other than a bathroom, that is shielded from view and free from intrusion from coworkers and the public and is sanitary for breastfeeding employees to express their milk during work hours. This room ideally will provide an electrical outlet, comfortable chair, and nearby access to running water. Employees may, of course, use their private office area for breastfeeding or milk expression, if they prefer. Employees in need of an appropriate space should contact the Human Resources Department or their supervisor.
- B. Employees shall be provided flexible breaks to accommodate breastfeeding or milk expression. A breastfeeding employee shall be provided a flexible schedule for breastfeeding or pumping to provide breastmilk for her child. The time would not exceed normal time allowed for lunch and breaks. For time above and beyond normal lunch and breaks, appropriate accrued time must be used, or the employee may flex their time, with supervisor approval, and can come in a little early or leave a little later to make up the time.
- C. Employees shall be provided support.
 1. A refrigerator will be made available for safe storage of expressed breastmilk, when possible. Employees may use their own cooler packs to store expressed breastmilk or may store milk in a designated refrigerator/freezer. Employees should provide their own containers, clearly labeled with name and date. Those using the refrigerator are responsible for keeping it clean. Please contact Human Resources for the location of a refrigerator/freezer that may be available for use.
 2. Employees will be notified about the County's Nursing Mothers Support/Breastfeeding policy. The company's Nursing Mothers Support policy will be communicated to staff, including methods such as the employee website, bulletin board postings, orientation sessions, etc.
 3. Breastfeeding Information. Staff members in the County Health Department (X7186) are available to provide information and assistance regarding breast feeding questions and concerns.

An employee may, upon request, review the contents of the employee's personnel file. Unless the employer is provided with a release from the affected employee, the only information released to third parties from the employee's personnel file shall be the dates of employment, position held at time of termination and the pay rate at termination. VOLUNTARY VACATION DONATION. Under the Voluntary Vacation Donation program, a Vacation Leave Bank is available to provide additional paid days for employees who have exhausted all accumulated sick, vacation, random, compensatory time and banked holidays and who are, or who have a member of their immediate family who is, experiencing a life-threatening or catastrophic illness or injury or the employee is experiencing some other catastrophic life event. Immediate family member is defined, for this purpose, according to FMLA regulations. Donation and Recipient requests can be made through the Human Resources Department. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

A. Donation Procedure:

An employee may voluntarily transfer accrued vacation time to either a general pool, to be used by any qualifying County employee, or to a designated pool, to be used by a designated employee who has made known his or her request. Any hours donated for a designated employee, but not used, shall roll-over to the general pool. On an annual basis, the maximum amount of leave an employee may contribute is five (5) vacation days. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

In order to establish participation in the pool the donating employee must have accrued enough leave days in order to retain a minimum balance of five (5) days for personal use. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

Any employee who wishes to transfer vacation days must sign a statement indicating the number of days to be transferred and if the donated hours should be added to the general pool or donated to a designated employee. No transfer of funds will occur, but the contributing employee's leave balance will be reduced by the number of days contributed. The donation of vacation hours will be irrevocable [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

Donations are not tax deductible, and donor identity will remain strictly confidential, unless otherwise authorized by the donor. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

B. Recipient Eligibility Criteria:

To be eligible to receive leave from the pool, an employee must be experiencing a catastrophic illness or injury, (either the employee or an immediate family member), or other catastrophic life event, which is expected to continue following exhaustion of all accrued sick, vacation, random, compensatory time and banked holidays. Employees will not be eligible if receiving workers compensation or any other disability payments, such as Wisconsin Retirement. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

The employee or a designee may apply for pool leave at least five (5) days before exhausting all accrued balances. A request form must be completed, and submitted to the County Human Resources Director, with justification (physician's statement) for the request and the estimated number of days needed from the pool. The physician's statement must include the beginning date of the condition, a description of the illness or injury, and a prognosis for recovery. The Genetic Information Nondiscrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) prohibits employers and other entities covered by GINA Title II from requesting or requiring genetic information of employees or their family members. Jefferson County will comply with this law by informing healthcare providers responding to requests for medical information to not provide genetic information. Genetic information, as defined by GINA, includes an individual's family medical history, the results of an individual's or family member's genetic tests, the fact that an individual or an individual's family member sought or received genetic services, and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or an individual's family member or an embryo lawfully held by an individual or family member receiving assistive reproductive services. [am. 02/08/11, ord. 2010-25; am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

The employee must have been employed at a status with benefits for a minimum of six months. An employee may apply for donated vacation leave only once per calendar year and only from either the general pool or from designated donations.

- The maximum number of hours an employee may receive from the general pool is one-third of the balance in the pool.
- Any hours not used from either the general or a designated pool will be returned back to the general pool only.
- In any pay period, recipients may use donated hours only up to their normal scheduled hours of work. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

Employees who use leave from the pool are not required to pay it back. Any balance of days approved but not required for the illness will remain the property of the general vacation leave pool. The estate of a deceased employee is not entitled to payment for unused pool leave and any balance will also remain the property of the vacation leave pool. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

C. Administrative Issues:

Participation in the program, for donors and recipients, is entirely voluntary and will remain strictly confidential. If an employee applies to be a designated recipient, the Human Resources Director will notify all County employees via the County email system of the employee's name, the amount of hours requested and any information the employee desires to publicly share. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

A life-threatening or catastrophic injury or illness is a serious debilitating illness or injury which incapacitates the employee, or a member of the employee's immediate family, and which creates a financial hardship because the employee has exhausted all eligible leave. A catastrophic life-event is an occurrence that causes detrimental life-changing consequences to the employee's emotional, physical or mental state of health. Employees who need to work a reduced schedule because of a catastrophic injury, illness or life-event will be granted donations on an individual basis, taking into consideration a number of factors such as the prognosis of the condition, the expected duration of the condition, the ability of the employee to continue to accrue sick and vacation time, the ability to maintain health insurance benefits, and any other factor that may contribute to creating an undue hardship for the employee. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

All accepted requests are contingent on the approval of the leave itself by the employee's supervisor unless leave is otherwise mandated by state and/or federal law.

On a case-by-case basis, the County Human Resources Director is responsible for verifying medical and other documentation, reviewing eligibility requirements, approving and processing donations, confirming employee acceptance of donations and transferring credits within five (5) working days after written receipt of the application. The amount, if any, of general and designated pool leave granted for each catastrophic illness or injury will be determined by the County Human Resources Director. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

An employee may appeal the County Human Resources Director's determination to the Human Resources Committee. The Human Resources Committee's decision is final. Application for leave is acceptance of the terms of this policy. [am. 08/14/12/, ord. 2012-11]

The Human Resources Committee is authorized to make administrative changes as necessary to successfully administer this policy. [am 08/09/05, Ord. 2005-13]

WHISTLEBLOWER POLICY. (cr. 09-13-11, ord. 2011-12)

- A. PURPOSE. The purpose of this policy is to promote open, honest and transparent government in Jefferson County and encourage good faith reports of allegations of misconduct concerning compliance with County policies and procedures and State and Federal laws and regulations.
- B. POLICY. The County provides various mechanisms to assist and encourage employees to come forward in good faith with reports or concerns about suspected compliance issues. It is the policy of Jefferson County that harassment, retaliation or any type of discrimination or adverse action against a county employee (“whistleblower”) who makes a good-faith complaint about suspected violation of law or county ethics policy by an employee or county elected official; or provides information or causes information to be provided or assists in an investigation regarding violations of law; or files, testifies or participates in a proceeding related to violations of law; is prohibited.
- C. REPORTING A SUSPECTED COMPLIANCE ISSUE. An employee who becomes aware of a potential or actual violation of policy or law should report such conduct, regardless of whether the employee is personally involved in the matter. An employee shall make such a report to his/her immediate supervisor. If the employee feels unable to do so or if there is any reason why this may not be appropriate, the employee shall raise the issue with the department director, Human Resources Director, or County Administrator. Should the complaint involve the County Administrator, the issue may be raised with the Human Resources Committee. Any report will be handled as confidentially as possible under the circumstances, and the County will handle all reports with discretion and with due regard for the privacy of the reporting employee. An employee may make anonymous reports, with the understanding that any investigation may be hampered due to the inability to identify the employee in order to obtain a full and complete account of relevant and necessary facts, or to ask additional questions or seek clarification as any investigation proceeds.
- D. FILING A WHISTLEBLOWER COMPLAINT. Jefferson County encourages employees to report suspected retaliation violations and requires supervisory employees to report suspected retaliation violations. Employees can report alleged retaliation to the supervisor, department head, the Human Resources Director, the County Administrator, or the Human Resources Committee.
- E. DISCIPLINARY ACTION. An investigation of all complaints will be undertaken immediately. All information disclosed in the complaint and the investigation procedure will be held in the strictest confidence and only disclosed when necessary to investigate and resolve the matter, as subject to State open records laws. Anyone who has been found by Jefferson County, after appropriate investigation, to have retaliated against an employee will be subject to appropriate disciplinary action which may include, depending on the circumstances, a written warning, suspension or discharge.

PERSONAL CONDUCT AND DISCIPLINE.

ABSENTEEISM POLICY [cr. 03/08/05, ord. 2004-36]

- A. Purpose: To establish the requirement that each employee work the hours scheduled for his/her position as a normal condition of work.
- B. Policy: An employee is responsible for notifying his/her supervisor or scheduling of his/her absence each day of the absence and advising when s/he will report back to work. Unexcused absences are cause for progressive corrective action and may result in termination. Failure to call in as appropriate will be considered a No Call/No Show, and be subject to discipline measures within the No Call / No Show Policy.

FAILURE TO REPORT TO DUTY WITHOUT APPROVAL FOR TWO (2) CONSECUTIVE WORK ASSIGNMENTS SHALL BE CONSIDERED A VOLUNTARY TERMINATION BY THE EMPLOYEE.

C. Guidelines:

- 1. An employee is considered absent if s/he is not present for work as scheduled. Tardiness is also an attendance issue.
- 2. Excessive Absence (unavailability): Frequent absences to the degree that the employee's attendance is creating a financial and staffing hardship on the department. The employee is therefore not consistently available for work (unavailability). Unless required by law to allow time off, more than seven total sick days in a maximum of five occurrences per a 12-month period is considered unacceptable.
- 3. Patterned Absences: Those unexcused absences which recur as a "pattern," and may involve consistent Monday or Friday absences; absences of days immediately before or after holidays or vacations; or frequent absences which fall on similar days or times of the month. Tardiness patterns will also be evaluated.
- 4. Employees may be subject to disciplinary action for the following:
 - a. Failure to follow the appropriate reporting procedures, including receipt of physician documentation within two days of call-in, unless otherwise allowed under FMLA or other applicable regulation [am. 07/11/06, ord. 2006-11]
 - b. Unauthorized absences (Including Tardiness)
 - c. Excessive absences (use of sick leave that exceeds seven days in five occurrences per 12-month period)
 - d. Patterned absences
 - e. Excessive tardiness
 - f. Calling in sick for the date of a previously denied request for a vacation or holiday [am. 07/11/06, ord. 2006-11]
 - g. Time off without use of accrued benefit time, unless an approved unpaid leave of absence [am. 07/11/06, ord. 2006-11]
- 5. It is important that employees be aware that their prudent use of sick leave is to their advantage. Supervisors should inform employees that an ample balance of sick leave may be needed in the case of a major illness. Elected long-term disability coverage does not pay benefits until after 90 consecutive calendar days of total disability. Having an ample balance of accrued sick days will provide an income and help pay for benefits during the required ninety day "elimination period."
- 6. Employees who are WRS eligible will receive a payout of 65% of total accrued sick days (or 100% of accrued sick days in case of death) up to a maximum accrual of 108 days or 864 hours. [am. ord. 2008-24, 11-10-08]
- 7. Employee absences not subject to disciplinary action:
 - a. Approved vacation, holiday or administrative leave
 - b. Approved personal, parental, or family medical leave of absence

- c. Absences for jury duty or other approved absences covered by contract/policy provisions
 - d. Approved time off for death in the family
 - e. Worker's Compensation
 - f. The first three incidents of sick leave covered by a Physician's documentation in a 12-month period. Thereafter, incidents of sick leave covered by a Physician's documentation may be subject to disciplinary action. [am. 07/11/06, ord. 2006-11]
 - g. Pre-approved medical appointments [cr. ord. 2005-09, 06/21/05]
8. Identification of an Attendance Problem and Corrective Action
- The circumstances surrounding an employee's inability to meet attendance obligations may vary. Supervisors will analyze records, discuss problem situations with employees and take necessary corrective actions. Consistent with the practice of progressive discipline, supervisors should counsel employees who show signs of attendance problems. Continued infractions may result in the following:
- Oral Warning
 - Written warning
 - Suspension
 - Termination

It is a management right to deviate from progressive steps in corrective action for egregious infractions of this policy.

Each case of unavailability and pattern of poor attendance will be handled consistently as well as reviewed on its own merit. The type of action that the supervisor takes will depend upon the specific circumstances of the case. Supervisors will consider the following factors when considering appropriate action:

- a. The number of hours the employee has been absent
- b. The number of instances (no more than seven days in a total of five occurrences in a twelve-month period).
- c. The employee's length of service and past attendance record
- d. The employee's demonstrated effort to correct attendance problems

Supervisors will counsel employees regarding attendance problems and work with the employee by suggesting ways to correct the problem. Supervisors will review the attendance records of their employees. This review process provides supervisors with the opportunity to commend those who have good attendance records. All employees should receive from their supervisor, as a part of the annual performance evaluation, a statement commenting upon their attendance record for the past year.

9. Requirements for Medical Documentation
- Employees will be required to provide documentation from a physician for absences due to illness of three days or longer or instances of a communicable disease upon the request of the department head concerned. All medical disabilities including personal illness/injury must be covered by the proper medical/doctor's authorization. Employees must have a written release from the doctor upon return from a disability or absence resulting from a work-related illness or injury, or a non-work-related injury or illness preceded by a leave of absence. A doctor's verification is required for all absences due to any kind of work-related illness or injury regardless of the number of days absent. The doctor's excuse must specify the reason for the absence. [am. 10/27/09, ord. 2009-16]
10. Attendance Improvement Efforts
- Staff can lower their corrective action for attendance problems. If staff demonstrate a three-month period of time with no call ins or tardiness

(without a physician's excuse). Corrective actions for attendance will be reduced one level.

Good attendance for a period of six months will return the employee's status to normal attendance expectations of no more than seven workdays with no more than five occurrences in a 12-month period. The 12-month period begins at the time of the corrective action.

This effort will demonstrate to management that the employee is making a concerted effort to markedly improve attendance. [cr. 03/08/05, ord. 2004-36]

EMPLOYEE DISCIPLINE.

- A. A nonprobationary employee may be disciplined, suspended, demoted or discharged for just cause. Probationary employees may be suspended or discharged at will, without recourse to the provisions of this section. Employees shall be considered to be probationary until the first day of the pay period following 6 months of employment. [am. ord. 85-7, 6/11/85]
- B. The following shall be deemed violations of the Personnel Ordinance and may be the subject of disciplinary action. Unexcused absence from work, excessive absenteeism, abuse of sick leave, reporting for work late or leaving early, theft, failure to perform the work assignment, publicizing confidential matters, insubordination, unauthorized use of County vehicles or property, making false entries on official records, tampering with records, moral turpitude, Ethics Code violations, or disobedience of County or departmental rules. This list is not all inclusive.
- C. Discipline may be handled informally by the department head, Human Resources Director or County Administrator in the form of oral or written reprimands and/or warnings. Such reprimands or warnings shall be noted on the employee's record. County Board members or committees will not normally be involved in the disciplinary process, as the role of a supervisor or committee is related more to policy decisions than day to day management of the affected department. However, should a supervisor or committee have concerns that may lead to disciplinary action for an employee, the supervisor or committee shall bring those matters to the attention of the department head, the Human Resources Director, the County Administrator, or the Human Resources Committee, in that order. Following this process should allow the appropriate party to address the issue. [am. ord. 2005-30, 11/08/05; 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
- D. Department heads or the County Administrator may suspend, demote or discharge nonprobationary employees for just cause. The County Administrator shall approve suspension, demotion or discharge of a nonprobationary employee before the department head may take such action. In the event that immediate action is required and the County Administrator cannot be reached, the employee shall be suspended pending investigation. [am. ord. 85-7, 6/11/85; am. ord. 2005-43, 02/14/06]
- E. Persons administering discipline shall systematically document each incident. The documentation shall include the employee's name, date and type of infraction, names and statements of witnesses, description of action taken and any other relevant details. Copies of all written disciplinary actions shall be maintained in the employee's permanent personnel file in the Human Resources Department and shall be provided to the employee. [am. ord. 85-7, 6/11/85]
- F. An employee disciplined, including suspended, demoted or dismissed may appeal such action per HR0520, Grievance Resolution Process. [am. ord. 85-7, 6/11/85; am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-31]
- G. All periods of suspension for investigative purposes shall be with pay. All periods of suspension for disciplinary reasons shall be without pay. (cr. ord. 85-7, 6/11/85.)
- H. Notwithstanding any other provision of this ordinance or other ordinances to the contrary, the County Administrator, Corporation Counsel and department heads appointed by the County Administrator and confirmed by the Board shall be employed at will and serve no probationary period. Department heads may be removed at the pleasure of the County Administrator pursuant to Section 59.18(2)(b), Stats. Removal of the Corporation Counsel by the County Administrator requires the concurrence of the County Board pursuant to Section 59.42(1)(B), Stats. The County Administrator shall hold the position at the pleasure of the County Board. The action of the County Board in removing the County Administrator shall be final. [cr. ord. 2005-08, 06/21/05]

GRIEVANCE RESOLUTION PROCESS. [cr. 09/13/11, ord. 2011-12]

- A. POLICY. Jefferson County will endeavor to treat all employees equitably within established County and department policies or procedures and state or federal guidelines affecting the workplace. If an employee does not feel that fair treatment within the established policies, procedures, or state or federal guidelines has been applied to a discipline, termination or workplace safety, the employee has the right to discuss the matter with representatives of Jefferson County and/or to request formal consideration of their grievance under the Grievance Resolution Process. The Grievance Process will be available to all employees except civil service law enforcement personnel.

The Grievance Resolution Process is designed to assist employees in resolving grievances within specific parameters. The Grievance Resolution Process is intended to resolve grievances about application or administration of existing Jefferson County policies in light of the existing policy or past application of the policy. The Grievance Resolution Process is not intended to consider grievances regarding Jefferson County policies or as a mechanism to change an existing policy. Grievances are restricted to discipline, termination of employment or safety. The Grievance Resolution Process is not intended to hear grievances regarding application of issues related to health, disability or other insurances. No retaliatory action will be taken against any employee for proper and good faith use of the Grievance Resolution Process or participation in processing of a grievance. [am. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-30]

B. PROCEDURAL ISSUES.

- 1. Administration. The Director of Human Resources will supervise and administer the grievance process and is further charged with being an advocate and counsel to assist employees in this process. Supervisors and Department Heads should keep the Director of Human Resources informed of all grievances in progress.
- 2. Employee Representation. Employees may be accompanied by a representative of their choice at any level of the grievance procedure after the appeal to the department head provided the employee notifies the County at least 24 hours ahead of the meeting that the representative will attend and who the representative will be. The representative is allowed to help the employee present their grievance but no step in the procedure is intended to be a legal proceeding. Employees may contact their representative to discuss their problem only during break periods, lunch periods, before or after work, or at any time when they are not on duty.
- 3. Timelines. Failure to process a grievance by the grievant within the time limit, or agreed upon extensions, shall constitute waiver of the grievance which will be considered resolved on the basis of the County's last answer. Failure of a management representative to meet the time limits shall cause the grievance to move automatically to the next step in the procedure. To encourage that grievances are addressed in a prompt manner the time limits set by this policy are intended to be strictly observed and may not be extended except in extreme circumstances and then only upon the express written consent of the parties.
- 4. Exclusive Remedy. This procedure constitutes the exclusive process for the redress of any employee grievances as defined herein. However, nothing in this grievance procedure shall prevent any employee from addressing concerns regarding matters not subject to the grievance procedure with administration and employees are encouraged to do so. Matters not subject to the grievance procedure that are raised by employees shall be considered by administration which has final authority, subject to any applicable Board policy or directive, to resolve the matter.

C. DEFINITIONS.

- 1. Days: Regular business days, Monday through Friday, other than weekends and holidays regardless of whether the employee or his or her classification is scheduled to work. The time within which an act is to be done under this policy shall be computed by excluding the first day and including the last day.

2. Grievance: Any written statement that an employee submits regarding established policies, practices or decisions about the employee's wages, hours of work, status, or other terms and conditions of employment will be considered a formal grievance. Only grievances regarding discipline, termination and workplace safety will follow this Grievance Resolution Procedure. All other grievances may be addressed under HR0560.
3. Discipline: Any action that results in documentation to the employee's record, including verbal or written warning, suspension with or without pay, involuntary demotion, or involuntary termination of employment.
4. Employee: Any full or part-time employee of Jefferson County, including temporary, seasonal and occasional employees. This does not include elected officials or independent contractors.
5. Safety: Those conditions related to physical health and safety of employees enforceable under federal or state law, or County rule related to: safety of the physical work environment, the safe operation of workplace equipment and tools, provision of protective equipment, training and warning requirements, workplace violence and accident risk.
6. Termination: Any involuntary separation from Jefferson County employment. This would not include retirements, voluntary resignations, layoffs, separation from service due to business closures, separation by mutual agreement, or termination for similar reasons.

D. STEPS TO RESOLVE THE GRIEVANCE:

STEP 1: Discussion with Supervisor: Any employee having a grievance regarding application of a department or county policy should first discuss the problem with their immediate supervisor. If the problem is not settled to the employee's satisfaction, the employee may present their grievance according to the procedures below. If any employee is uncomfortable addressing the grievance directly with the supervisor, the employee may request assistance from the Human Resources Director or County Administrator.

STEP 2: Appeal to Department Head: The employee should submit the written grievance to the Department Head within ten (10) days of the date of the incident or decision that caused the grievance. The Department Head shall give a written answer within ten (10) days of receipt of the grievance, with a copy to the Human Resources Director.

The written grievance must include: the name and position of the grievant; a clear and concise statement of the grievance; the issue involved; the relief sought; the date the incident or alleged violation took place; the specific section of the Policy Manual or workplace safety rule alleged to have been violated; and the signature of the grievant and the date. The grievance may be denied if any of this information is omitted. (See attached Grievance Procedure Form).

STEP 3: Appeal to County Administrator: If the employee is not satisfied with the Department Head's response, the grievance may be presented to the County Administrator. The grievance should be submitted within five (5) days from the date of delivery of the Department Head's answer. After receipt of the written grievance by the County Administrator, a meeting should be held to discuss the complaint at a mutually agreeable time between the County Administrator and the employee, preferably within ten (10) days of receipt of the written grievance. Within ten (10) days after the meeting, the County Administrator shall respond to the grievance in writing, with a copy to the Human Resources Director.

The County Administrator shall also determine if the grievance is timely, if the subject matter of the grievance is within the scope of this policy and otherwise properly processed as required by this policy. If the County Administrator is aware of other similar pending grievances, the County Administrator may consolidate those matters and process them as one grievance.

The decision at the third step may be appealed by a written statement of the grievant forwarded to the Human Resources Director describing the reason for appeal. This written statement shall be submitted within five (5) days from the date of delivery of the County Administrator's answer.

If the decision at Step 3 is based in whole or in part on the basis of timeliness, scope of the grievance process or other failure of the grievant to properly follow the process the matter shall be referred to the Human Resources Committee who shall determine whether the matter should be processed further. If the Third Step decision is on the merits of the grievance only the grievance will be referred to an Impartial Hearing Officer (IHO).

STEP 4: Request for Hearing by an Impartial Hearing Officer: The IHO will be designated by the County Administrator. Any costs incurred for or by the (IHO) will be paid by the County. The IHO will convene a hearing in the manner the IHO determines necessary. The IHO shall have the authority to administer oaths, issue subpoenas at the request of the parties, and decide if a transcript is necessary. The IHO may require the parties to submit grievance documents and witness lists in advance of the hearing to expedite the hearing. The burden of proof shall be "a preponderance of the evidence". In termination and discipline cases, the County shall have the burden. In workplace safety cases, the employee shall have the burden. The IHO may apply relaxed standards for the admission of evidence, including allowing the admission of hearsay. The IHO may request oral or written arguments and replies. The IHO shall provide the parties a written decision.

The IHO may only consider the matter presented in the initial grievance filed by the employee. The IHO shall have no power to add to, subtract from or modify the terms of the Board policy or rule that forms the basis for the grievance.

STEP 5: County Board Review: Either party may appeal an adverse determination at step four to the County Board, by filing written notice appealing the decision of the IHO in the County Administrator's Office within ten (10) days of the decision of the IHO. The County Board shall within thirty (30) days after submission of the appeal schedule the review of the IHO's decision. The review will be conducted by the Board during a closed session meeting unless an open session is requested by the employee. The Board may make its decision based on the written decision of the IHO or the Board may examine any records, evidence and testimony produced at the hearing before the IHO. A simple majority vote of the Board membership shall decide the appeal within twenty (20) days following the last session scheduled for review. The Board will issue a final written decision which shall be binding on all parties.

PROGRESSIVE DISCIPLINE [cr. 3/13/12, ord. 2011-30]

- A. Purpose: Whenever, and wherever, people work together, certain standards of reasonable conduct need to be established in order to create a harmonious and friendly environment. Jefferson County expects all employees to maintain a work environment that encourages mutual respect, promotes pleasant working relationships among employees and the public they serve, and is free from all forms of harassment and violence.

Consequently, when an issue in the workplace arises, Jefferson County's goal is to provide a structured corrective action process that is prompt, uniform and impartial, and to correct problems, prevent recurrences and prepare employees for satisfactory service in the future. Therefore, the progressive discipline policy and procedure below will generally be followed, while maintaining the County's right to skip, combine or repeat steps, depending upon the facts of each situation and the nature of the offense(s). Progressive discipline may be issued on employees even when the conduct that leads to more serious discipline is not the same that resulted in less severe discipline. That is, violations of different rules may be considered the same as repeated violations of the same rule for purposes of progressive action. Examples of violations that may not be subject to progressive discipline are set forth in Section G.

- B. Procedure: The County will normally adhere to the following progressive disciplinary process:

Step 1: Counseling: An employee will be given a verbal caution or counseling when problematic behavior or performance is observed. As the first step in the progressive discipline policy, a verbal counseling is meant to alert the employee that a problem has been identified, which must be addressed. Verbal counseling will be documented and maintained by the supervisor.

Step 2: Verbal Warning. A verbal warning creates an opportunity for the immediate supervisor to schedule a meeting with an employee to bring attention to the existing performance, conduct or other issue where the employee is not meeting expectations. The supervisor should discuss with the employee the nature of the problem. The supervisor is expected to clearly outline expectations and steps the employee must take to improve performance or resolve the problem.

Step 3: Written Warning. A written warning involves a more formal documentation of performance, conduct or other problematic issue identified. During step 3, the immediate supervisor and a division manager or director will meet with the employee and review any additional incidents or information about the performance, conduct or problematic issues as well as any prior disciplinary or performance improvement plans. Management will outline the consequences for the employee of his or her continued failure to meet performance and/or conduct expectations, as well as an additional performance improvement plan if appropriate.

Step 4: Suspension without Pay. Unpaid suspensions are subject to recommendation from the Department Head and Human Resources Director, and approval of the County Administrator. Depending upon the seriousness of the infraction, the employee may be suspended without pay in full-day increments consistent with federal and state wage-and-hour employment laws. Nonexempt/hourly employees may not substitute or use any accrued paid time in lieu of the unpaid suspension. Due to Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) compliance issues, unpaid suspensions for salaried/exempt employees may be reserved for serious workplace safety or conduct issues, unless specified in weekly increments. Human Resources will provide guidance so that the discipline is administered without jeopardizing the FLSA exemption status.

Step 5: Demotion or Transfer. Demotions and transfers are subject to recommendation from the Department Head and Human Resources Director, and approval of the County Administrator. An employee who continues to exhibit poor performance may be demoted or transferred to a vacant position for which the employee is qualified and for which the County believes the employee will be successful in.

Step 6: Termination of Employment. The last and most serious step in the progressive discipline procedure is a recommendation by the department head and Human Resources Director to terminate employment. Generally, Jefferson County will exercise the progressive nature of this policy by first providing warnings and/or suspension from the workplace before proceeding to a recommendation to terminate employment. However, Jefferson County reserves the right to combine and skip steps depending upon the circumstances of each situation and the nature of the offense. Furthermore, employees may be terminated without prior notice or disciplinary action as set forth in Section G below. The recommendation to terminate employment requires the County Administrator's final approval.

- C. Paid Suspension or Administratively reassignment of duties. When immediate action is necessary to ensure the safety of the employee or others, or the integrity of an investigation, the most effective action may be the temporary removal of the employee from the workplace. In these situations, the immediate supervisor may temporarily suspend the employee with pay, or reassign duties to another area, pending the outcome of an investigation. The Human Resources Director and County Administrator shall be notified as soon as practical regarding this immediate action and the County Administrator shall approve any continued action to be taken.
- D. Documentation. Persons administering discipline shall systematically document each incident. The documentation shall include the employee's name, date and type of infraction, names and statements of witnesses, description of action taken and any other relevant details, including a performance improvement plan if applicable. The person implementing the discipline and the employee should sign copies of all documented warnings attesting to their receipt. Original copies of all verbal and written disciplinary actions shall be maintained in the employee's permanent personnel file in the Human Resources Department, and a copy shall be provided to the employee.
- E. County Board. County Board members or committees will not normally be involved in the disciplinary process, as the role of a Board member or committee is related more to policy decisions than day to day management of the affected department. However, should a Board member or committee have concerns that may lead to disciplinary action for an employee, the Board member or committee shall bring those matters to the attention of the department head, the Human Resources Director, the County Administrator, or the Human Resources Committee, in that order. Following this process should allow the appropriate party to address the issue.

HR0570SAFETY IN THE WORKPLACE. [cr. 05/12/15, ord. 2015-03]

- A. It is the goal of Jefferson County to provide a place of employment free from recognized hazards in order to provide the safest of possible working conditions. Accidents can cause untold suffering and financial loss to our employees and their families and cause an unnecessary drain of tax dollars when used to pay medical expenses and compensation as well as lost time away from work.
- B. All levels of management will be held accountable to maintain a safe and healthy workplace environment for all employees, and to ensure their Department's compliance with all laws, rules and regulations by following and enforcing all safety policies and procedures developed to comply with those laws, rules and regulations.
- C. Every employee will adhere to the policies and procedures for their own safety and that of their co-workers. Employees and Supervisors must also be aware that safety will take precedence over expediency and shortcuts when performing their duties. It is the County's desire and intent that the consideration of safety for both our employees and the general public in the performance of daily assignments bear as high a priority as the decision to commit funds or to complete a task which must be done. Employees should be aware that every reasonable step will be taken to reduce the potential of an accident or injury related to their employment and they are encouraged to support management in the realization of this goal.
- D. Jefferson County will assure that all employees receive the necessary information, proper training, and appropriate tools to perform their job in a safe and healthy manner.
- E. Employees who violate safety policies or procedures or put themselves, a co-worker or a member of the public in harm's way shall be subject to disciplinary action.
- F. Employees shall report any unsafe conditions or actions they observe to their direct Supervisor so that those conditions and actions can be corrected immediately. The County will not discipline or harass any employee who reports a safety violation. Any employee who retaliates against another employee for reporting a safety concern shall be disciplined accordingly.

Within five (5) business days of such resignation, the former employee may present evidence to the County showing just cause for reconsideration of the termination decision. After the evidence has been considered, the employee will be informed of the County's decision. VACATION WITH PAY

[repealed and recreated 10/10/2023, ord. 2023-12]

- A. PURPOSE: Jefferson County recognizes the importance of work-life balance and the value of vacations for our employees' well-being. This vacation ordinance outlines the procedures for requesting, accruing, and using vacation time.
- B. POLICY: Vacation is an earned benefit and part of Jefferson County's comprehensive employee benefit package. During approved vacation time, employees will receive their regular base pay, subject to applicable deductions. If a recognized county holiday falls within an approved vacation period, it will not be counted as a vacation day. If an employee falls ill during their vacation, they should promptly report it to their supervisor and Human Resources. Sick leave may be used if the employee qualifies for leave under the Wisconsin and/or Federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA).
- C. PROCEDURE:
1. Eligibility: Regular employees working 24 or more hours per week are eligible for vacation benefits. Excluded are limited-term employees, including emergency help employees, regardless of the expected duration of their assignment.
 2. Accrual Timing: Vacation is distributed on an annual basis on January 1, calculated based on the years of service, FTE, and hours worked in the previous year.
 3. Requesting Vacation Time: Employees must request vacation time in advance using their department's designated time-off request system. Requests should be submitted with as much notice as possible, and approval is subject to manager discretion and workload requirements. Employees are encouraged to plan their vacations in consultation with their supervisors to ensure proper coverage. The County will make every effort to accommodate reasonable vacation requests but cannot guarantee that all vacation requests will be approved.
 4. Vacation Accrual:
 - a. Vacation upon initial employment or change to a benefited position in first 2 years of Service: New employees and employees changing from a non-benefited to a benefited status will receive 2 weeks (80 hours) of vacation, prorated based on the employee's designated Full-Time Equivalent (FTE) work hours and remaining hours for the year. For example, an employee regularly scheduled 40 hours/week and hired on July 1 will receive 40 hours of vacation for the remainder of the year. An employee regularly scheduled 30 hours/week and hired on July 1 will receive 30 hours of vacation for the remainder of the year.
 - b. Vacation After 2 Years of Service or change to a benefited position after 2 Years of Service: After completing 2 full years of service within the previous calendar year, employees will receive 3 weeks (120 hours) of vacation, prorated using the same method of proration as described in subsection 4a. above. For example: A full-time employee has 2 full years of service completed on October 1. The employee will receive prorated vacation in January of the succeeding year based on 9 months at the 2-week rate and 3 months at the 3-week rate, or 90 hours.
 - c. Vacation After 7 Years of Service or change to a benefited position after 7 Years of Service: After completing 7 full years of service within the previous calendar year, employees will receive 4 weeks (160 hours) of vacation using the same method of proration as described in subsection 4a. above.

- d. Vacation After 15 Years of Service or change to a benefited position after 15 Years of Service: After completing 15 years of service within the previous calendar year, employees will receive 5 weeks (200 hours) of vacation using the same method of proration as described in 4a. above.
5. Vacation for Part-time Employees Working Less Than 24 Hours/Week: (Part-time employees regularly working less than 24 hours per week, but 18 or more hours/week, will be eligible for prorated vacation based on their average weekly hours.
 - a. Employees will accrue vacation time based on the average number of hours worked per week, and their accrual will be prorated accordingly as follows:
 - i. Budgeted and regularly working less than 18 hours/week: Not eligible for vacation accrual.
 - ii. Budgeted and regularly working 18 to 23 hours/week: Accrual at a rate equivalent to 50% of prorated status. For example, a full-time employee receives 120 hours of vacation based on their years of services. An employee working 18 hours/week (.45 FTE) would receive 50% of a .45 FTE, or $120 \text{ hours} \times .45 \times .5 = 27$ hours of vacation.
 - b. Vacation for part-time employees will follow the same accrual, approval, payout, forfeiture policies as full-time employees. The carryover limit for part-time employees into the next calendar year will be limited to 8 hours unless 6.b. of this ordinance applies.
6. Carryover Policy: Employees are encouraged to utilize their accrued vacation time regularly to maintain a healthy work-life balance. To promote this, the policy includes a carryover provision.
 - a. Standard Carryover: Employees may carry over a maximum of 24 hours of unused vacation annually. These hours can be used during the following year or be forfeited.
 - b. Additional Carryover: In exceptional cases, where employees have a legitimate reason for being unable to use their vacation hours during the year, they may request additional carryover hours. To request additional carryover, employees must provide a written explanation detailing the circumstances preventing the use of accrued vacation time. The request must be approved by both their department head and the Human Resources Director or their designees.
7. Vacation Payouts: Employees who resign or reduce their hours below 24 hours per week (18 hours per week for part-time positions) will be paid out accrued but unused vacation time, excluding employees terminated for cause.
8. Vacation Use Exceptions: Under rare and/or catastrophic circumstances, employees who have completed their qualifying period may borrow against next year's vacation already accrued with approval of the department head, Human Resources Director, and County Administrator.
9. Vacation Forfeiture: The decision to forfeit vacation will be made by the Human Resources Director or their designees.
10. Review and Amendments: This vacation ordinance is effective January 1, 2024, and it supersedes any previous policies which are subject to this ordinance. This vacation ordinance will be subject to review periodically and may be amended as needed. Any changes will be communicated to all employees in a timely and transparent manner.
