SECTION 8 PROGRAM: The Section 8 Rental Assistance Program is one of the Federal Government's programs for assisting eligible low income families to secure decent, safe, and sanitary housing. The Housing Authority administers this Program in the Louisville Metro area by providing eligible families with vouchers that enable them to seek out suitable housing in the private sector, by entering into contracts with landlords, and participating in the families' rental payments. Head of Household must be at least 18 years of age or legally emancipated in order to participate in the program.

MODERATE REHAB PROGRAM: This program is for specific units owned by private landlords in the Moderate Rehab Program located in Jefferson County. Under the Moderate Rehab Program, you must be willing to live in one of the Moderate Rehab Apartments rather than being able to choose your own unit, as you would under the Section 8 Voucher Program. The Head of Household must be at least 18 years of age or legally emancipated.

PUBLIC HOUSING PROGRAM: If you are interested in the Public Housing Program call 502-569-3400.
