Public Records and Request

The Veterans' Assistance Commission (VAC) of Madison County, IL is committed to providing the Public with Information and Records as requested under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA).

Archived hard copy volumes of records are available at the VAC. Electronic records are not currently available except as posted on the VAC website at <http://co.madison.il.us/mcvac>

Many records are already posted online via other County Departments, so please visit the appropriate department to see if the records sought are not already available and that any request is going to the correct FOIA Officer.
