

Southlake Town Square

Southlake, Texas

About the Development

Southlake Town Square is a 130 acre town center development in the Dallas-Fort Worth region of Texas. It is a mixed-use development with restaurants, entertainment, and retail in walking distance from single-family and multi-family homes.

Residential Development

185 units planned

37 units built

Commercial Development

1.13 million square feet of commercial space built

99,187 square feet of civic buildings built

Commercial Tenants

87 retailers

26 restaurants

Hilton Hotel

Movie theatre

Access to Transportation

Located directly on TX-114

11 miles (14 min.) to U.S. I-35W

9 miles (12 min.) to DFW International Airport

Milestones of the Development

Late

- Planning began

1990's

1999 - Phases I and II opened to the public

2005- Phases IV and V completed

2006 - 129,000 square feet of residential added

2007 - Phase III completed

Southlake Town Square

