Old Business

Haz Waste: Saturday, June 25th Sandy, Hugh Davis, an intern working in the town Engineering Department from Quinnipiac University and a fellow from the Town of Cheshire manned Haz Waste Central.

Trees: Five dogwood trees are being planted in town courtesy of the Conservation Commission. Two will be planted at Chapman Sinoway Park located at 268 Upper State Street, two on the triangular town owned property on Fitch Street and Rock Road. One will be planted on the top of the hill, the other at the bottom of the hill on Rock Road. Also, one will be planted at Todd's Pond on Maple Avenue.

Eventually the Commission would like to place a small sign near each tree.

Elm trees ordered by the Commission will be delivered next year.
