Rancho Simi Recreation and Park District Hosts Virtual 5k / 10k Dad's Day Run

For the first time in its nearly 60 year history, Rancho Simi Recreation and Park District is excited to announce it will host its first 5K / 10K Virtual Dad's Day Run starting June 16th through June 30th, 2020.

The purpose of the event is to celebrate dads, uncles, grandpas, and any father figure in our lives, and also to stay active! The entry fee is $10 per participant and is open to all ages and abilities. To register, visit https://www.rsrpd.org/events/virtual_events.php and use registration code VRS101-2.

You can complete the run however you choose. Simply pick your own starting line, how far you want to run (5k or 10k), and how you'd like to accomplish the event; either on the roads, on a track, on a trail, on a treadmill, or a combination of any or all of them It's completely up to you!

Once you have completed your distance goal, upload your finishing time on the "Virtual Run Time Submission Form" which can be found on the Districts Sports/Leagues webpage at <https://tinyurl.com/rsrpd-virtual-run> and a receive a shiny medal celebrating the father figure in your life. Medals can be mailed or picked up in-person by appointment only at the Park District's main office located at 4201 Guardian Street in Simi Valley.

For more information about this exciting new virtual event, visit rsrpd.org or contact Rancho Simi Recreation and Park District's Recreation Coordinator Greg Laranjo at 805-584-4456.
