

RANCHO SIMI RECREATION & PARK DISTRICT

4201 Guardian Street
Simi Valley, CA 93063
805-584-4400
www.rsrpd.org

PRESS RELEASE

Contact: Danielle June

For Immediate Release

(805) 584-4400

Sign Up Today For Rancho Simi Recreation & Park District Spring Break Camps

Rancho Simi Recreation and Park District invites you to register your child for the many wonderful Spring Camps in Simi Valley during the Simi Valley Unified School District Spring Break, March 23rd – 27th. The Park District offers full-day and partial-day options at numerous locations.

Full-day options are available at Garden Grove, Madera, Mountain View, Township, Vista, and Wood Ranch Elementary Schools from 6:45am – 6:00pm for grades JK/TK through 6th. Attendance is free for current monthly Before and After School Club participants, and $36 a day for non-participants. Children will enjoy organized group play, arts and crafts, snack, playground time, and much more.

Grades 6th – 8th can attend a full-day Teen Club Camp at Hillside Middle School from 6:45am-6:00pm. Attendance is free for current monthly Teen Club participants, and $36 a day for non-participants. The program features a commitment to leadership skills, unique games that promote teamwork and problem solving, and other great activities.

For those interested in partial day options, the District offers a wide array of specialty camps for ages 5 through 14 including Art, Princess Camp, Dance, Robotics, Sports and much more. Please consult the Rancho Simi Reporter Activity Guide (pages 12 and 13) for specific information on pricing, location, content, dates, and specific age for each camp.

To register click www.rsrpd.org or call 805-584-4400 for more information.

###

---