Rancho Simi Recreation & Park District Fall Full Day Program

The Rancho Simi Recreation and Park District is excited to announce P.A.L. (Play and Learn!). The full day program is for participants Grades JK/TK – 6th beginning August 17th. Multiple locations available across Simi Valley. An interest list will be taken for those seeking a middle school program.

Monthly dues for each program are $625 a month (plus $30 registration fee), with care being offered Monday through Friday from 6:45am to 6:00pm. The program model, which is an extension of RSRPD's reputable After School Club, will feature a time and space for each participant to complete their virtual learning sessions and school work, daily organized activities, arts and crafts, group games, and much more.

A site-specific safety plan has been crafted at each location to ensure that social distancing, sanitizing measures, and other health requirements are met.

Registration is available now online at www.rsrpd.org, space is limited at each location due to social distancing measures. For more information on the full day program and all other Rancho Simi Recreation and Park District programs, call staff at 805-584-4400.
