RANCHO SIMI RECREATION AND PARK DISTRICT OFFERS NEW SELF-SERVE RECBALL KIOSKS

The Rancho Simi Recreation and Park District announces a new amenity at Rancho Tapo, Rancho Madera, and Rancho Simi Community Parks for sports enthusiasts to enjoy.

Park patrons can now rent a variety of sports balls from RECBALL kiosks - brightly colored, solar powered, sports ball rental machines featuring soccer balls, footballs and volleyballs - for a minimal fee. The first 15 minutes is free, and $3 per hour thereafter. Other monthly plans are available at reduced rates for more frequent users. Simply download the free app from the website at www.recball.us to play today!

The balls are sanitized once a day with UV light and a bottle of hand sanitizer is provided in each bin, which doubles as a storage locker once the ball is removed. Patrons can even charge their mobile devices from inside the lockers and securely store small personal items while they play their favorite sport. The service is simple, affordable and fun!

Founder and CEO, Boris Boundjia commented, "Sports has a way of bringing people together no matter where they're from, what age, gender, race or social class they are. That's our vision with RECBALL, to bring people together in the community through the power of sport."
